Revealing Masks W. Anthony Sheppard, 2001-02-01 W Anthony Sheppard considers a wide ranging constellation of important musical works in this fascinating exploration of ritualized performance in twentieth century music Revealing Masks uncovers the range of political didactic and aesthetic intents that inspired the creators of modernist music theater Sheppard is especially interested in the use of the exotic in techniques of masking and stylization identifying Japanese Noh medieval Christian drama and ancient Greek theater as the most prominent exotic models for the creation of total theater Drawing on an extraordinarily diverse and in some instances little known range of music theater pieces Sheppard cites the work of Igor Stravinsky Benjamin Britten Arthur Honegger Peter Maxwell Davies Harry Partch and Leonard Bernstein as well as Andrew Lloyd Webber and Madonna Artists in literature theater and dance such as William Butler Yeats Paul Claudel Bertolt Brecht Isadora Duncan Ida Rubenstein and Edward Gordon Craig also play a significant role in this study Sheppard poses challenging questions that will interest readers beyond those in the field of music scholarship For example what is the effect on the audience and the performers of depersonalizing ritual elements Does borrowing from foreign cultures inevitably amount to a kind of predatory appropriation Revealing Masks shows that compositional concerns and cultural themes manifested in music theater are central to the history of twentieth century Euro American music drama and dance The Hermeneutics of Tradition Craig Hovey, Cyrus P. Olsen, 2014-11-18 The Hermeneutics of Tradition presents the latest scholarship on tradition as a concept and reality in the development of Christian cultures One aim is to show that traditions are upheld communicated and developed within a recognizable set of interpretive guidelines or rules and that analysis of these sets both requires and reveals a hermeneutics of tradition The work of the authors included here presents the precarious integrity of traditions and the often tenuous hold upon those traditions exercised by the hermeneutics that drive dynamics of preservation and change As scholars and religious worshippers continue ancient traditions of receiving strangers with generous hospitality the coherence of tradition serves conversations about where our true differences lie
