The Arapaho Way Sara Wiles, 2019-10-31 The sun the moon the seasons our Arapaho way of life writes foreworder Jordan Dresser When you look around you see circles everywhere And that includes the lens Sara Wiles uses to capture these intimate moments of our Arapaho journeys In The Arapaho Way Wiles returns to Wyoming s Wind River Indian Reservation whose people she so gracefully portrayed in words and photographs in Arapaho Journeys 2011 She continues her journey of discovery here photographing the lives of contemporary Northern Arapaho people and listening to their stories that map the many roads to being Arapaho In more than 100 pictures taken over the course of thirty five years and Wiles s accompanying essays the history of individuals and their culture unfold revealing a continuity as well as breaks in the circle Mixing traditional ways with new ideas Catholicism ranching cowboying school learning activism quilting beadwork teaching family life the people of Wind River open a rich world to Wiles and her readers These are people like Helen Cedartree who artfully combines Arapaho ways with the teaching of the mission boarding schools she once attended like the Underwood family who live off the land as gardeners and farmers and value family and hard work above everything and like Ryan Gambler and Fred Armajo whose love of horses and ranching keep them close to home And there are others who have ventured into the non Indian world people like James Large who brings home tenets of Indian activism learned in Denver There are also inevitably visions of violence and loss as The Arapaho Way depicts the full life of the Wind River Indian Reservation from the traditional wisdom of the elder to the most forward looking youth from the outer reaches of an ancient culture to the last minute challenges of an ever changing world
