Bordering the Baltic Madeleine Hurd,2010 In this book scholars from different disciplines use case studies drawn from Sweden Norway Finland and Denmark to analyze the last century s construction of engagement with and challenges to both hard and soft Scandinavian boundaries The book provide historical examples of how national borders have been contested by Scandinavian states caught between powerful Continental neighbors these attempts to firm up boundaries can be contrasted to the denationalization of borders caused both by the globalization of communications and markets and by political efforts to submerge national boundaries in a common Baltic identity A second set of studies focuses on boundaries defining Scandinavian minorities Here the book analyzes the spaces rituals bodies gender roles and collective identity discourses implicit in majority minority boundaries and their transgression Throughout Scandinavian bordering processes are studied in terms of the groups that launch them the methods by which they are propagated and finally the meanings supposedly and actually invested in them Series Nordische Geschichte Vol 10 Monthly Review Bank of Nova Scotia,1927 The Log,1946
