Genealogy Katherine Pennavaria, 2015-04-08 Commercials for the largest subscription database indicate that the process of genealogy is simple you just plug in what you know and the database does the rest Those ads might sell subscriptions but they are misleading Getting beyond that low hanging fruit is not so easy collecting the records and data needed to delineate a family tree accurately requires time organization and informed searching Records are available from many places and finding them is never a one stop shopping experience So how does the new researcher identify which resources meet his or her specific research needs And how can libraries and librarians best help this new generation of genealogists Genealogy A Practical Guide for Librarians offers help on several levels First librarians can use this book to learn what resources both print and online their library should offer their patron base This means not only what monographs to purchase and subscription databases to maintain but what websites to highlight at the library s webpage what to include in their online tutorials what adult education programming is appropriate Critical assessments of print and online resources are given including the strengths and weaknesses that librarians need to help patrons understand them Second both librarians and researchers can find here an in depth discussion of the research process itself including the best steps for a beginning researcher and search strategies for the experienced one And third anyone can use this book to become better informed about the phenomenon of genealogy itself and about the latest standards for online searching and research The book includes practical advice for every public service librarian and offers all researchers from novice level to experienced a clearly delineated context for the popular subject of family history research

Swedish-American Borderlands Dag Blanck, Adam Hjorthén, 2021-08-24 Reframing Swedish American relations by focusing on contacts crossings and convergences beyond migration Studies of Swedish American history and identity have largely been confined to separate disciplines such as history literature or politics In Swedish American Borderlands this collection edited by Dag Blanck and Adam Hjorthén seeks to reconceptualize and redefine the field of Swedish American relations by reviewing more complex cultural social and economic exchanges and interactions that take a broader approach to the international relationship ultimately offering an alternative way of studying the history of transatlantic relations Swedish American Borderlands studies connections and contacts between Sweden and the United States from the seventeenth century to today exploring how movements of people have informed the circulation of knowledge and ideas between the two countries The volume brings together scholars from a wide range of disciplines within the humanities and social sciences to investigate multiple transcultural exchanges between Sweden and the United States Rather than concentrating on one way processes or specific national contexts Swedish American Borderlands adopts the concept of borderlands to examine contacts crossings and convergences between the nations featuring specific case studies of topics like jazz architecture design genealogy and more By placing interactions entanglements and cross border relations at the center of the analysis Swedish American Borderlands seeks to bridge disciplinary divides joining a diverse set of scholars and scholarship in writing an innovative history of Swedish American relations to produce new understandings of what we perceive as Swedish American and Swedish American Contributors Philip J Anderson North Park U Jennifer Eastman Attebery Idaho State U Marie Bennedahl Linnaeus U Ulf Jonas Bj rk Indiana U Indianapolis Thomas J Brown U of South Carolina Margaret E Farrar John Carroll U Charlotta Forss Stockholm U Gunl g Fur Linnaeus U Karen V Hansen Brandeis U Angela Hoffman Uppsala U Adam Kaul Augustana College Maaret Koskinen Stockholm U Merja Kyt Uppsala U Svea Larson U of Wisconsin Madison Franco Minganti U of Bologna Frida Rosenberg KTH Royal Institute of Technology Stockholm Magnus Ull n Stockholm U
