of David Bowie's music videos across a sustained period takes on interweaving storyworlds of an iconic career Remarkable for their capacity to conjure elaborate imagery Bowie's videos provide fascinating exemplars of the artistry and remediation of music video When their construction is examined across several years they appear as time travelling vessels transporting kooky characters and strange story world components across time and space By charting Bowie's creative and collaborative process across five distinct phases David Bowie and the Art of Music Video shows how he played a vital role in establishing music video as an artform Filling a gap in the existing literature this book shines a light on the significant contributions of directors such as Mick Rock Stanley Dorfman and David Mallet each of whom taught Bowie much about how to use the form By examining Bowie's collaborative process his use of surrealist strategies and his integration of avant garde art with popular music and media the book provides a history of music video in relation to the broader fields of audiovisual media visual music and art

Paratextualizing Games Benjamin Beil, Gundolf S. Freyermuth, Hanns Christian Schmidt, 2021-11-05 Gaming no longer only takes place as a closed interactive experience in front of TV screens but also as broadcast on streaming platforms or as cultural events in exhibition centers and e sport arenas The popularization of new technologies forms of expression and online services has had a considerable influence on the academic and journalistic discourse about games This anthology examines which paratexts gaming cultures have produced i e in which forms and formats and through which channels we talk and write about games as well as the way in which paratexts influence the development of games How is knowledge about games generated and shaped today and how do boundaries between popular criticism journalism and scholarship have started to blur In short How does the paratext change the text

Policy and Rights Challenges in Children's Online Behaviour and Safety, 2017-2023 Andy Phippen, 2025-01-11 This book evidences the cyclical failures of online safety policy and challenge conventional policy and educational approaches to tackling online harms and provide a robust argument for a critical evidence based approaches which align with the needs of those we claim to wish to protect It argues for a move away from knee jerk headline grabbing and subjective policy development In drawing parallels from the drug policy world contrasting the increasingly progressive and evidence based policy making in this space compared to prejudiced emotive developments in online harms

Affective Intensities and Evolving Horror Forms Adam Daniel, 2020-02-03 Horror cinema is a genre that is undergoing constant evolution from the sub genre of found footage to post cinematic new media forms such as Youtube horror horror video games and cinematic virtual reality horror By investigating how these new forms alter the dynamics of spectatorship this book charts how cinema's affective capacities have shifted in relation to these modifications in the forms of cinematic horror It applies a rich theoretical synthesis of phenomenological and Deleuzian approaches to a number of case studies including films like The Blair Witch Project Paranormal Activity and Creep as well as video games such as Alien Isolation and new media forms such as Youtube horror and virtual reality horror

Folk Horror Dawn Keetley, Ruth Heholt, 2023-04-15 While the undisputed heyday of folk horror was Britain in the 1960s and 1970s the genre has not only a rich cinematic and literary prehistory but directors and novelists around the world have also been reinventing folk horror for the contemporary moment This study sets out to rethink the assumptions that have guided critical writing on the genre in the face of such expansions with chapters exploring a range of subjects from the fiction of E F Benson to Scooby Doo video games and community engagement with the Lancashire witches In looking beyond Britain the essays collected here extend folk horror s geographic terrain to map new conceptualisations of the genre now seen emerging from Italy Ukraine Thailand Mexico and the Appalachian region of the US

Monstrous Forms Adam Charles Hart, 2020 It makes us jump It makes us scream It haunts our nightmares So why do we watch horror Why do we play it What could possibly be appealing about a genre that tries to terrify us Why would we subject ourselves to shriek inducing shocks or spend dozens of hours watching a television show about grotesque flesh eating monsters Monstrous Forms offers a theory of horror that works through the genre across a broad range of contemporary moving image media film television video games YouTube gifs streaming virtual reality This book analyzes our experience of and engagement with horror by focusing on its form paying special attention to the common ground the styles and forms that move between mediums It looks at the ways that moving image horror addresses its audiences the ways that it elicits or demands responses from its viewers players browsers Camera movement or camera movement jump scares offscreen monsters horror innovates and perfects styles that directly provoke and stimulate the bodies in front of the screen Analyzing films including Paranormal Activity It Follows and Get Out video games including Amnesia The Dark Descent Layers of Fear and Until Dawn and TV shows including The Walking Dead and American Horror Story Monstrous Forms argues for understanding horror through its sensational address and dissects the forms that make that address so effective
