P. Willis, 2018-02-10 Excerpt from The Scenery and Antiquities of Ireland Vol 1 Illustrated From Drawings by W H Bartlett As the soil is so the heart of man says Lord Byron It is indeed remarkable how closely the character and disposition of a people will be found to assimilate to the natural features of the clime they inhabit and how deeply the human mind is tintured by the bright or gloomy scenes upon which it is accustomed to dwell Pursuing this fanciful theory we imagine we can trace in the chequered character of the Irish people a reflection of the varied aspect of the country Their exuberant gaiety their deep sadness their warm affections their fierce resentment their smiles and tears their love and hatred all remind us forcibly of the light and shadows of their landscapes where frowning precipices and quiet glens wild torrents and tranquil streams lakes and woods vales and mountains sea and shore are all blended by the hand of Nature beneath a sky now smiling in sunshine now saddening in tears About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Scenery and Antiquities of Ireland Volume 1 - Scholar's Choice Edition Nathaniel Parker Willis, J.
