Ezra Pound in Context Ira B. Nadel,2010-11-11 Long at the centre of the modernist project from editing Eliot's The Waste Land to publishing Joyce Pound has also been a provocateur and instigator of new movements while initiating a new poetics This is the first volume to summarize and analyze the multiple contexts of Pound's work underlining the magnitude of his contribution and drawing on new archival textual and theoretical studies Pound's political and economic ideas also receive attention With its concentration on the contexts of history sociology aesthetics and politics the volume will provide a portrait of Pound's unusually international reach an American born modern poet absorbing the cultures of England France Italy and China These essays situate Pound in the social and material realities of his time and will be invaluable for students and scholars of Pound and modernism

The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern American Poetry Suzanne W. Churchill,2017-03-02 Suzanne Churchill's well researched and superbly crafted study is the first book length treatment of Others an important and neglected little magazine that served as a laboratory for modernist poetic experimentation In discussions of influential poets such as Mina Loy Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams whose careers Others helped launch Churchill counters the notion of Modernism as aesthetically self isolating and socially disengaged Rather she traces a correspondence between formal innovation and social change in American modernist poetry and argues that this dimension of modernist formalism is lost when poems are studied in isolation Others provides a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism The little magazine not only anchors modernist poetry in a social context but also leads to new insight into major modernist texts Churchill s commitment to her subject s broad cultural contexts makes her book important for students and teachers of Modernism as well as for those working in the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory periodical studies and cultural studies
