The SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society Frederick F. Wherry, Juliet B. Schor, Consulting Editor, 2015-09-01

Economics is the nexus and engine that runs society affecting societal well being raising standards of living when economies prosper or lowering citizens through class structures when economies perform poorly Our society only has to witness the booms and busts of the past decade to see how economics profoundly affects the cores of societies around the world From a household budget to international trade economics ranges from the micro to the macro level It relates to a breadth of social science disciplines that help describe the content of the proposed encyclopedia which will explicitly approach economics through varied disciplinary lenses Although there are encyclopedias of covering economics especially classic economic theory and history the SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society emphasizes the contemporary world contemporary issues and society Features 4 volumes with approximately 800 signed articles ranging from 1 000 to 5 000 words each are presented in a choice of print or electronic editions Organized A to Z with a thematic Reader s Guide in the front matter groups related entries Articles conclude with References Future Readings to guide students to the next step on their research journeys Cross references between and among articles combine with a thorough Index and the Reader s Guide to enhance search and browse in the electronic version Pedagogical elements include a Chronology of Economics and Society Resource Guide and Glossary This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social science programs who seek to better understand economics through a contemporary lens

Battleground: Schools Sandra Mathison, E. Wayne Ross, 2007-12-30 No topic sparks an argument faster among the American public even with relatively apolitical people than how their children are taught In schools across the country school boards parents teachers and students themselves debate issues ranging from charter schools to the first amendment rights of students to the efficacy of the No Child Left Behind Act School districts in Georgia and Pennsylvania have seen battles over the teaching of evolution places as diverse as Colorado Washington and Kentucky have had debates over how best to protect children while at school Battleground Schools provides an in depth balanced overview of these controversial topics and enables teachers students and their parents to better understand the foundations of these conflicts The Vietnam Veteran in Contemporary Society , 1972 Fashion, Identity, and Power in Modern Asia Kyunghee Pyun, Aida Yuen Wong, 2018-10-25 This edited volume on radical dress reforms in East Asia takes a fresh look at the symbols and languages of modernity in dress and body Dress reform movements around the turn of the twentieth century in the region have received little critical attention as a multicultural discourse of labor body gender identity colonialism and government authority With contributions by leading experts of costume textile history of China Korea and Japan this book presents up to date scholarship using diverse methodologies in costume history history of consumption and international trade Thematically organized into sections exploring the garments and uniforms accessories fabrics and fashion styles of Asia this edited volume offers case studies for students and scholars in an ever expanding field of material culture including but not limited to economic history visual culture art history history of journalism and popular culture Fashion Identity and Power in Modern Asia stimulates further research on the impact of modernity and imperialism in neglected areas such as military uniform school uniform women s accessories hairstyles and textile trade Jewish Welfare in Hamburg and Manchester, C. 1850-1914 Rainer Liedtke,1998 This comparative history of Jewish welfare in Hamburg and Manchester highlights Jewish integration and identity formation in nineteenth century Europe Despite their fundamentally different historical experiences the Jews of both cities displayed very similar patterns of welfare organization This is illustrated by an analysis of community wide Jewish welfare bodies and institutions provisions for Eastern European Jewish immigrants and transmigrants the importance of women in Jewish welfare and the function of specialized Jewish voluntary welfare associations The realm of welfare was vital for the preservation of secular Jewish identities and the maintenance of internal social balances Dr Liedtke demonstrates how these virtually self sufficient Jewish welfare systems became important components of distinctive Jewish subcultures He shows that though it was intended to promote Jewish integration the separate organization of welfare in practice served to segregate Jews from non Jews in this very important sphere of everyday life Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer,2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice Maryland School Bulletin Maryland. General index Charles Dudley Warner,1898 American Studies Jack Salzman,1990-05-25 This volume supplements the acclaimed three volume set published in 1986 and consists of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1984 and 1988 There are more than 6 000 descriptive entries in a wide range of categories anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science and technology and sociology School Life ,1947 Managing Mass Education, and the Rise of Modern and Financial Management Ian Waitt,2023-09-01 This book skilfully intertwines three main themes in the growth and expression of management The essential component to understanding of context is established through a stark exposition of the conditions of society in the 18th and 19th centuries From these is drawn the until now unrecognised precursor of major change the establishment of mass education This was achieved through the wayward genius of the charismatic teacher Joseph Lancaster who despite his struggles with the Church and his own foibles was able through his attractively cheap plan and dominant guiding idea to bring mass education to Britain then Europe the USA the Americas and much of the world enabling the institution of the first and second industrial revolutions This occurred in parallel with the remarkable growth of what was to become modern and financial management The practical case studies also included in the text usefully highlight the merits and demerits of major societal transformations An invaluable and essential contribution to the creation of a new paradigm for Management Studies this important exposition with its emphasis on the human element and experience is relevant to all students teachers and practitioners of management from school college and university levels to the postgraduate and experienced management practitioner State Course of Study for the Elementary Schools in the State of Missouri, 1919 Missouri. Department of Education,1919 The Work of the Public Schools, Rochester, New York Rochester (N.Y.). Board of Education,1928 Los Angeles School Journal ,1928 A Charge Against Society Mary John,1997 Children in Charge concentrates on the theme of children s rights reflecting the increasing knowledge in the area The series uses the United Nations Convention of the Child as a benchmark A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol. XLV (Forty-Five Volumes); Synopses of Famous Books & General Index Charles Dudley Warner,2009-01-01 It would be enough to recommend this astonishing 45 volume set first published in 1896 if it were merely a wonderfully massive compilation of the world s best writings from the world s best authors up until the advent of the 20th century But A Library of the World s Best Literature is so much more than that For this marvelous collection represents the evolution of human thought the evolution of human civilization even as seen through the mind of one of the most important if sadly almost forgotten literary figures of the 19th century Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world And so it still deserves to be Arranged not chronologically but alphabetically mostly under the names of authors but in some cases of literatures or special subjects such as Icelandic literature or Arthurian legend this set is no dry reference work These eminently browsable volumes available through Cosimo for the first time in decades in both paperback and hardcover editions are meant to be read and enjoyed by anyone who loves the written word Volume 45 features more synopses of notable works from Adam Bede by George Eliot to Zury The Meanest Man in Spring County by Joseph Kirkland including many not previously referenced in the set but highlighted as well worth a serious reader's time and attention This volume also includes a General Index to the 45 volume set
