original archival material including letters and payment records into the analysis of Sustris's many projects that ranged from large fresco cycles to intimate luxury and devotional objects Duke Wilhelm V of Bavaria transformed Munich into a vital cultural crossroads between northern Europe and Italy As Wilhelm's court artist and artistic director Friedrich Sustris created a unified vision that broadcast Bavarian magnificence to princely courts across Europe Although much of Sustris's work is lost the remaining body of his drawings provides a unique window onto the reception of drawings by early modern elites within the context of their collecting practices Francesco Albani: Albani and his Critics Catherine R.

Paul Klee Annie Bourneuf, 2015-07-20 The fact that Paul Klee 1879-1940 consistently intertwined the visual and the verbal in his art has long fascinated commentators from Walter Benjamin to Michel Foucault However the questions it prompts have never been satisfactorily answered until now In Paul Klee Annie Bourneuf offers the first full account of the interplay between the visible and the legible in Klee's works from the 1910s and 1920s Bourneuf argues that Klee joined these elements to invite a manner of viewing that would unfold in time a process analogous to reading From his elaborate titles to the small scale he favored to his metaphoric play with materials Klee created forms that hover between the pictorial and the written Through his unique approach he subverted forms of modernist painting that were generally seen to threaten slow contemplative viewing Tracing the fraught relations among seeing reading and imagining in the early twentieth century Bourneuf shows how Klee reconceptualized abstraction at a key moment in its development First Proofs of the Universal
