A Bibliography of Higher Education in Canada Supplement 1981 / Bibliographie de l'enseignement supérieur au Canada Supplément 1981 Robin S. Harris, Marcel de Grandpre, Hazel Roberts, Hugh Smith, 1981-12-15 The 1981 Supplement adds more than 3000 entries to the approximately 10 500 listed in the original volume and in the 1965 and 1971 Supplements Like its predecessors this volume provides a full list of the secondary sources related to Canadian higher education books articles theses dissertations and reports published from 1971 to 1980 The reporting arrangement of entries and overall organization of the material remains the same as in the 1971 Supplement Scholarly Publishing in Canada and Canadian Bibliography--selected Papers on Two Themes Association for Canadian Studies. Conference, 1993 Bibliographical Analysis G. Thomas Tanselle, 2009-07-02 Studying printed books as physical objects can reveal not only how books were produced but also how their design and layout features emerged and came to convey meanings This concise and accessible introduction to analytical bibliography in its historical context explains in clear non specialist language how to find and analyze clues about a book s manufacture and how to examine the significance of a book s design Written by one of the most eminent bibliographical and textual scholars working today the book is both a practical guide to bibliographical research and a history of bibliography as a developing field of study For all who use books this is an ideal starting point for learning how to read the object along with the words Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada s official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones, 2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre A Thoroughly Canadian General Paul Douglas Dickson, 2007-01-01 General H D G Harry Crerar 1888 1965 was involved in or directly responsible for many of the defining moments of Canadian military history in the twentieth century In the First World War Crerar was nearly killed at the second battle of Ypres was a gunner who helped to secure victory at Vimy Ridge and was a senior staff officer during the pivotal battles of the last Hundred Days During the Second World War he occupied and often defined the Canadian army's senior staff and operational appointments including his tenure as commander of First Canadian Army through the northwest European campaign Despite his pivotal role in shaping the Canadian army however General Crerar has been long overlooked as a subject of biography In A Thoroughly Canadian General Paul Douglas Dickson examines the man and his controversial place in Canadian military history arguing that Crerar was a nationalist who saw the army as an instrument to promote Canadian identity and civic responsibility From his days as a student at the Royal Military College in Kingston to his role as primary architect of First Canadian Army the career of General H D G Crerar is thoroughly examined with a view to considering and reinforcing his place in the history of Canada and its armed forces

Auto/biography in Canada Julie Rak, 2009-08-02 Auto biography in Canada Critical Directions widens the field of auto biography studies with its sophisticated multidisciplinary perspectives on the theory criticism and practice of self community and representation Rather than considering autobiography and biography as discrete genres with definable properties and rather than focusing on critical approaches the essays explore auto biography as a discourse about identity and representation in the context of numerous disciplinary shifts Auto biography in Canada looks at how life narratives are made in Canada Originating from literary studies history and social work the essays in this collection cover topics that range from queer Canadian autobiography autobiography and autism and newspaper death notices as biography to Canadian autobiography and the Holocaust Grey Owl and authenticity France Thoret and autofiction and a new reading of Stolen Life the collaborative text by Yvonne Johnson and Rudy Wiebe Julie Rak's useful big picture introduction traces the history of auto biography studies in Canada While the contributors chart disciplinary shifts taking place in auto biography studies their essays are also part of the ongoing scholarship that is remaking ways to understand Canada
