Grades James A. Rycik, Judith L. Irvin, 2005 Unlike any other text Teaching Reading in the Middle Grades provides a balanced readable analysis of recent documents developed by professional organizations, researchers, and government agencies including the National Council of Teachers of English, the International Reading Association, and the National Reading Panel. With its careful balance of the different dimensions presented in current research outlining that the teacher, not only the method, is a crucial factor in student achievement, this text helps students grasp the scope and complexity of student achievement in Literacy.

Phonics from A to Z Wiley Blevins, 1998 Provides an explanation of phonics, a method of reading instruction that focuses on the relationship between sounds and their spellings, and features over one hundred activities for the classroom as well as sample lessons, word lists, and teaching strategies.

Performance Standards: Middle school New Standards (Organization), 1997 Presents clear expectations for student achievement and more than 200 examples of student work. Each volume contains standards for language arts, mathematics, science, and applied learning. The FREE video contains student work samples and commentaries to illustrate speaking, listening, and viewing sections of the English Language Arts Standard.
