School After Dark:

After Dark James Leck, 2015-08-01 Fifteen year old slacker Charlie Harker is stuck in the sleepy town of Rolling Hills for the summer helping his mom renovate his great grandfather's creaky old inn. It's not entirely dull thanks to Charlie's new neighbor Miles Van Helsing who insists there's paranormal activity happening in Rolling Hills. Charlie chalks it up to Miles being the town nutcase. But many townspeople are falling prey to a mysterious illness and wisecracking Charlie quickly gets wise there's something sinister going on in Rolling Hills. Nightmare After Dark M. Long, 2010-07-30 Healing After

Dark Morris Aaron Cohen, Richard Shain Cohen, 2011-05-03 In 1927 in the field of health care an unusual event occurred. Morris Aaron Cohen M.D. founded the Boston Evening Clinic, an unique and never before conceived facility for the treatment of the indigent and low wage earners who could not afford to lose a day's pay. It was an endeavor that achieved success against overwhelming odds, the objections of the Massachusetts Medical Society, major hospitals, banks and businesses. Often denounced as unethical or even called a liar by an outstanding member of the Society who believed Morris Cohen was taking money from the poor and placing it in his own pockets, the besieged man never surrendered. None of the criticisms was justified and all were proved false. Why? Because Dr. Morris Cohen, as his memoir attests, persisted because he believed there were many among us who required the kind of care he believed in. Eventually this humane man who believed in the dignity of human beings who recognized the needs of people unable to pay for medical care during the day rose in stature with his clinic until eventual recognition by Presidents of the United States and persons both medical and lay within the United States and beyond. About the Author: Richard Shain Cohen of Cape Elizabeth, Maine, is originally from Boston. He retired from the University of Maine at Presque Isle after serving as Vice President of Academic Affairs and Professor of English. He holds B.S., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. He served as editor of the journal Husson Review and was principal participant in a National Endowment for the Arts Grant for Images of Aroostook that was exhibited throughout the State of Maine. His own publications, in addition to this book, include The Forgotten Longfellow, Man in the Shadows (2010), Only God Can Make a Tree (poetry from himself and his brother Alfred Robert Cohen) and the novels Monday, End of the Week, Be Still, My Soul and Petal on a Black Bough. He also wrote chapters for Aroostook Land of Promise, academic reviews, other articles, and with the help of a Shell Grant, a monograph on Samuel Richardson that can be found in major library holdings. Aside from the present book in progress is a fourth novel. After Dark Harold J. Recinos, 2021-07-15 Recinos' love for poetry began on the tormented streets of the South Bronx and the experience of being abandoned by Latino parents at age twelve to live on them. On the streets, Recinos discovered a world of extreme poverty and drugs. Until four years later he was taken into the family of a White Presbyterian minister and guided back into school. In graduate school in New York City, Recinos befriended the Nuyorican poets, the late Miguel Pinero and Pedro Pietri, who encouraged him to write and read poetry at the Nuyorican poets' cafe. After Dark is poetry that speaks distinctively of the cultural and worldly experience of Black and Brown humanity driven by the resilience and challenging worlds that impose human limitations Recinos uses the poetic instrument to enable readers to hear the history and share the experiences of people who see hope in the brutal atmosphere of this land of purple mountain majesties lashed to fierce grief Recinos is a poet who writes between the lines and with a Spanglish vision for life The Afterdark E. Latimer,2025-01-07 Queer horror at a boarding school with a Lovecraftian twist in this new YA novel from E Latimer author of the acclaimed The Strange and Deadly Portraits of Bryony Gray Northcroft is an elite boarding school with a deadly secret Each night as the bell tolls and the shutters slam down cutting off the outside world the Afterdark descends turning the surrounding old growth forest into a macabre copy of itself A negative photograph crawling with horrors Evie Laurent is certain of one thing from the moment she sees Holland Morgan on the front steps of Northcroft she wants to know everything there is to know about her But there are some things about Evie herself that are better kept secret Especially the fact that she let her sister drown And that it s getting harder to ignore her dark impulses Holland Morgan knows falling for Evie is just one more terrible choice in her long history of terrible choices The problem is she s not sure she cares As attraction turns slowly to obsession they find themselves playing a dangerous game Something out there is calling to each of them Beckoning to the shadows within Do they fight the call and protect one another or answer and embrace the darkness
