

Friends to lovers prompts:

1. Being cast as the main characters in a school play and having to perform a romantic confession scene together. You're okay with it since it's your friend playing the love interest, and they (probably) don't mean it anyway. But when they start acting it out, it almost feels real. Once the scene has ended, you realize how much you wished it was
2. Or being the one who has to act out the confession to your friend (who you've been crushing on for years) and trying so hard to not faint from embarrassment
3. Calling each other by nicknames
4. Accidentally confessing to each other while laughing over something
5. Being separated from each other for sometime and realising how much you miss the other's presence
