Jacob's Ladder Josephine Klein,2018-04-17 This book considers mysticism a world of ineffable experience to see if it might have anything to teach those in the therapeutic world invites the reader to look at newer ways of psychoanalytic thinking and uses writers of the past to help illuminate contemporary issues      The Language of Twentieth Century Poetry Lesley Jeffries,1993-09-28 This book draws on examples from throughout the twentieth century to illustrate the diversity of techniques used in this century's poetry Organised according to linguistic themes rather than chronologically the chapters introduce the reader to the more subtle uses of sound structure and meaning as well as illustrating well known techniques handed down from the poetic tradition Examples are taken from the famous writers of the twentieth century such as Yeats Eliot and Plath and from less well known poets The book culminates in a chapter which draws together the linguistic themes into an integrated analysis of two rather different poems      Our Needs for Others and Its Roots in Infancy Josephine Klein,2006-10-19 In this original and highly readable book Josephine Klein provides a detailed picture of how young infants experience life and how this lays the foundations for later personality structures      The Poetry of Ted Hughes Sandie Byrne,2014-08-15 This Reader's Guide charts the reception history of Ted Hughes poetry from his first to last published collection culminating in posthumous tributes and assessments of his lifetime achievement Sandie Byrne explores the criticism relating to key issues such as nature myth the Laureateship and Hughes relationship with Sylvia Plath      The Truth of Poetry Michael Hamburger,2022-02-10 First published in 1982 The Truth of Poetry attempts to answer a seemingly simple question What kind of truth does poetry offer in modern times Michael Hamburger's answer to this question ranges over the last century of European and American poetry and the result is a phenomenology of modern poetry rather than a history of appreciations of individual poets Stressing the tensions and conflicts in and behind the work of every major poet of the period he considers the many different possibilities open to poets since Baudelaire This expansive work of analysis will be of interest to students of English literature poetry enthusiasts and literary historians      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1968      Picturing Mind John Danvers,2006 In this book the author takes an unusual multi disciplinary approach to debates about contemporary art and poetry ideas about the mind and its representations and theories of knowledge and being Arts practices are considered as enactments of mind and as transformative modes of consciousness Ideas drawn from poetics philosophy and consciousness studies are used to illuminate the conceptual and aesthetic frameworks of a diverse array of visual artists Themes explored include the interconnectedness of existence art as a way of interrogating appearances identity and otherness art and the self as open work Buddhist concepts of emptiness and suchness scepticism mysticism and the arts and mind in the landscape The book contains an important and distinctive visual dimension with photographs and drawings by the author and texts employing unorthodox syntax and layouts that exemplify the themes under discussion The author hints at a new aesthetics and philosophy of indeterminacy paradox uncertainty and discontinuity a contrarium in which we negotiate our way through the instabilities and contradictions of contemporary life Written in a lively and accessible style this volume is of interest to scholars arts practitioners teachers and to anyone with an interest in art poetry consciousness studies philosophy and nature Artists poets and philosophers discussed include Cy Twombly Helen Chadwick John Ruskin Ad Reinhardt Richard Long James Turrell Anish Kapoor Ian Hamilton Finlay Agnes Martin Land Art Arte Povera Minimalism Charles Olson Kenneth White Robin Blaser Fred Wah Gary Snyder RS Thomas Alice Oswald John Cage Jorge Luis Borges Guy Davenport Kenneth Rexroth Heidegger Marjorie Perloff Thomas McEville Merleau Ponty Spinoza Wittgenstein Roland Barthes Umberto Eco David Abram Thomas Merton Pyrrho Nagarjuna
