Selected Prose Poetry:

On Poetry and Craft Theodore Roethke, 2013-07-01 One of the virtues of good poetry is the fact that it irritates the mediocre Theodore Roethke was one of the most famous and outspoken poets and poetry teachers this country has ever known In this volume of selected prose Roethke articulates his commitments to imaginative possibilities offers tender advice to young writers and zings darts at stuffed shirts lightweights and fools Art is our defense against hysteria and death With the assistance of Roethke's widow this volume has been edited to include the finest selections from out of print collections of prose and journal entries Focused on the making and teaching of poetry On Poetry and Craft will be prized in the classroom and outrageous Roethke quotes will once again pepper our conversations You must believe a poem is a holy thing a good poem that is Theodore Roethke was of an illustrious generation of poets which included Sexton Plath Lowell Berryman and like them he received nearly every major award in poetry including the Pulitzer Prize and twice the National Book Award In spite of his fame he remained a legendary teacher known for the care and attention he gave to his students poets such as James Wright Carolyn Kizer Tess Gallagher and Richard Hugo Roethke died on August 1 1963 while swimming in a friend's pool But before I'm reduced to an absolute pulp by my own ambivalence I must say goodbye The old lion perisheth Nymphs I wish you the swoops of many fish May your search for the abiding be forever furious On Poetry and Craft I am overwhelmed by the beautiful disorder of poetry the eternal virginity of words The poem even a short time after being written seems no miracle unwritten it seems something beyond the capacity of the gods We can't escape what we are and I'm afraid many of my notions about verse I haven't too many have been conditioned by the fact that for nearly 25 years I've been trying to teach the young something about the nature of verse by writing it and that with very little formal knowledge of the subject or previous instruction So it's going to be like

Selected Prose Ronald Stuart Thomas, 1983

The Leaves Are Something This Year Ed Barrett, 2023-07-28 Over the course of Ed Barrett's career he has manifested the prose poem as a vehicle to discover unselfconscious patterns of language and thought that arise in recurring patterns as fluid and pliant as stalks of kelp beneath where the Atlantic meets the shores of Ireland to patterns as sustaining as rebar in the structures of Boston's Big Dig In many ways Barrett's work builds on itself an archipelago of poems stretching out into the ocean ordered outside time place or places inner as well as outer He creates a foundational geology of thought and feeling that ultimately falls to what he can share and what he sees The prose poems cover the extent of Barrett's oeuvre and end with two new sequences Blow in Addresses and Viking Renga These pieces culminate in portraying a collaboration with one another a kind of interrogation of the universe and a marveling at this tenuous brief life we all occupy at this moment This selected reflects the gathering in of a Brooklyn bred Boston fired poet fully grounded in his Irish roots
