Selected Poems Strategies For Communication In Southern Afr:

The African Book Publishing Record ,1995 We Are the Ones We Have Been Waiting For Peter Levine,2015 In September 2011 two leading civic engagement advocacy organizations headed respectively by Robert Putnam and Peter Levine released a joint report showing that a region s level of civic engagement was a strong predictor of its ability to recover from the Great Recession This finding confirms what advocates of civic engagement have long hypothesized that strengthening the networks between government and civil society and increasing citizen participation results in better government and better community outcomes However citizens concerned about the economic crisis need more than just deliberation or community organizing alone to achieve these outcomes What they need according to Peter Levine is a movement devoted to civic renewal Deliberative democracy the idea that true democratic legitimacy derives from open inclusive discussion and dialogue rather than simple voting has become an extremely influential concept in the last two decades In We Are the Ones We Have Been Waiting For Peter Levine contends that effective deliberative democracy depends upon effective community advocacy Deliberation he shows is most valuable when talk and debate are integrated into a community s everyday life To illustrate how it works Levine draws lessons from both community organizing and developmental psychology and uses examples of successful efforts from communities across America as well as fledgling democracies in Africa and Eastern Europe By engaging in this type of civic work American citizens can meaningfully contribute to civic renewal which in turn will address serious social problems that cannot be fixed in any other way

Multilingual Universities in South Africa Liesel Hibbert,Christa van der Walt,2014-04-16 Focusing on the use of African languages in higher education this book showcases South African higher education practitioners attempts to promote a multilingual ethos in their classes It is a first time overview of multilingual teaching and learning strategies that have been tried and tested in a number of higher education institutions in South Africa Despite language in education policies that extol the virtues of multilingualism practice remains oriented towards English only learning and teaching In the multilingual contexts of local campuses this book shows how students and lecturers attempt to understand their multiple identities and use the available languages to create multilingual learning environments South African journal of African languages ,2003 A Select Index to South African Literature in English ,1991 Fact - Fiction - "faction" Horst Zander,1999

The Postcolonial Condition of Names and Naming Practices in Southern Africa Tendai Mangena,Oliver Nyambi,Charles Pfukwa,2016-08-17 The Postcolonial Condition of Names and Naming Practices in Southern Africa represents a milestone in southern African onomastic studies The contributors here are all members of and speakers of the cultures and languages they write about and together they speak with an authentic African voice on naming issues in the southern part of the African continent The volume s overarching thesis is that names are important yet often underestimated socio politico cultural sites on which some of the most significant events and processes in the post colony can be read The onomastic topics covered in the book range from the names of traditional healers and male aphrodisiacs to urban landscapes and street naming from the interface between Chinese and African naming practices to the names of bands of musicians and mini bus taxis There is a strong section on literary onomastics which explores how names have been variously deployed by southern African fiction writers for certain semantic aesthetic and ideological effects The cultures and languages covered in this volume are equally wide ranging and while some authors focus on single languages and cultures for example Thembu Xhosa Shona others look at inter cultural influences such as the influence of the Portuguese and Chinese languages on Shona naming Written by Professor Adrian Koopman Emeritus Professor University of KwaZulu Natal Theatre & Change in South Africa

Geoffrey Davis, Anne Fuchs, 2020-04-27 First Published in 1997 Can South African theatre continue to maintain its autonomy and exercise its critical role Can one rethink form and find new content Can a concept of post protest theatre be developed How might theatre contribute to post apartheid society These are just of the questions addressed in this book The real and present difficulties South African theatre is facing as well as possible future orientations are clearly shown at one of the most complex moments of political transition in the history of the South African society The authors include contributions from playwrights actors visual artists poets directors administrators critics and theatre academics Their comments and thoughts portray the active process of reflection and reappraisal redefining their artistic and political aims searching for new and vital theatrical forms Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie

Grant, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century The book re examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies Visualising China in Southern Africa Rui Assubuji, Ying Cheng, Patricia Hayes, Malcolm Corrigan, Binjun Hu, Romain Dittgen, T Tu Huynh, Esther Esmayol, Nicola Kritzing, Philip Harrison, Mark Lewis, Khangelani Moyo, Stary Mwaba, Marcus Neustetter, Kristin NG-Yang, Gemma Rodrigues, Shuo Wang, Yan Yang, Lifang Zhang, 2023-03 Engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production the essays in this volume are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture With China s rise as the new superpower its presence in Africa has expanded leading to significant economic geopolitical and cultural shifts Chinese and African encounters through the lens of the visual arts and material culture however is a neglected field Visualising China in Southern Africa is a ground breaking volume that addresses this deficit through engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production that prefigures the current relationship The essays are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture Richly illustrated the collection includes scholarly chapters photo essays interviews and artists personal accounts organised around four themes material flows orientations and transgressions spatial imaginaries and biographies Some of the artists photographers filmmakers curators and collectors in this volume include Stary Mwaba Hua Jiming Anawana Haloba Gerald Machona Nobukho Nqaba Marcus Neustetter Brett Murray Diane Victor William Kentridge Kristin NG Yang Kok Nam Mark Lewis the Chinese Camera Club of South Africa Wu Jing Henion Han and Shengkai Wu Resources in Education ,2000-10 Bibliographic Guide to Government Publications New York Public Library.
