Selected Writing As Elected:

Selected Writings Marco Biagi, 2003-01-01 The Selected Papers in this volume written over a period of some 20 years represent just a small part of Marco Biagi's scientific writings and are reprinted here with a view to showing the range depth and originality of his research work While many of his papers dealing with labour relations issues in the Italian context were published in Italian Marco's long association with Johns Hopkins University and Dickinson College along with his close links with the leading scholars in comparative labour law and industrial relations not just in the member states of the European Union but also in many other countries including Japan were of fundamental importance for his work and as a result he chose to publish many of his most thought provoking papers in English What emerges from a reading of these papers is the integrity and consistency of his thinking themes that appear in his early work such as industrial democracy employee participation training for flexibility the role of small and medium sized enterprises and innovative strategies for creating new jobs and improving the quality of work are further developed in the later years He always wrote with a sharp eye on changes in the labour market arising from economic social and political developments such as most recently the introduction of the single currency and always with a view to extending the benefits of employment opportunities beyond the existing limits His ideas will continue to play an influential role in thinking about employment issues for many years to come Lincoln's

Selected Writings (International Student Edition) (Norton Critical Editions) Abraham Lincoln, 2016-04-04 Bancroft Prize winning scholar David S Reynolds edits and introduces a broad selection of Abraham Lincoln's writings from his earliest days through his last Lincoln's Selected Writings includes a rich selection of his public and private letters speeches eulogies proposals debate transcriptions addresses including the First and Second Inaugurals and more The texts are accompanied by explanatory annotations a detailed preface a note on the texts and a list of abbreviations Lincoln's writings are followed by contemporary responses to him in poems songs and articles representations of Lincoln in modern imaginative and nonfiction writing and selections from recent cross disciplinary studies of Lincoln including discussions of his literary techniques and oratorical style as well as examinations of his political evolution in new cultural and social contexts Among the many contributors are Horace Greeley Jesse Hutchinson Nathaniel Hawthorne Karl Marx Ralph Waldo Emerson Harriet Beecher Stowe Victor Hugo and Walt Whitman Modern Views presents sixteen major interpretations of Lincoln's life work and legacy carefully chosen to promote discussion The contributors are Carl Sandburg Allen C Guelzo James Oakes Gillian Silverman Richard N Current Harold Holzer Sean Wilentz Eric Foner Manisha Sinha Robert A Ferguson Gabor Boritt James McPherson Stephen Cushman Faith Barrett David S Reynolds and Richard Carwardine and Jay Sexton A chronology selected bibliography and index are also included Objective Legal Basis Selected Writings Bogdan Szlachta, 2021 In the interwar period Czesław Martyniak Fr Antoni Szymański and Ignacy Czumak worked at the newly established Catholic University of Lublin basing their scientific activity mainly on the Thomistic tradition in the philosophy of law and referring to it in taking up criticism of the then influential trends the legal positivism especially as developed by Hans Kelsen who was considered to be the creator of its normative variety and solidarism treated by many authors of those times as a proposal for the critics of positivism referring to social facts rather than to the norms of the natural order Limiting this introduction to an attempt to make the reader interested in the context of heritage and fundamental issues of the philosophy of law we will only point out that the content of the statements of the abovementioned authors had mainly polemical value This does not mean however that apart from the critical arguments we will not find an outline of a positive position in their writings They undoubtedly demonstrate the importance of the need to establish a universal species goal and thus to indicate a certain appropriate and purposeful structure of action for all people as one that for many centuries has defined an essential aspect of the philosophy of law They see that questioning this orientation together with the negation of a realistic position which treats the human species as a real existence a kind of participation in every human being has opened up a perspective for new approaches for the differentiation of norms within every political community and for the search of justifications for those who take part in the creation of the legal order They are aware that the classical structure of reflection on the law present already in the Renaissance thought has been replaced by another the reflection on the universal purpose of the human species has been taken over by reflection on the multiplicity of objectives of the individual and the search for a guarantee of their realisation sometimes taking into account the objectives of the state as a particular kind of being which is to some extent independent of the existence and objectives of its constituent individuals They know that this approach was the result of a particular type of intellectual evolution that had taken place in European culture since around the 13th century leading to a gradual shift of interest from the order of all things to the projects of individuals They reach directly to St Thomas Aquinas and analyse the foundations of the normative order which at least sets a negative limit to the ability of individuals and legislators to act as well as to the content of established norms

Select Practical Writings of Richard Baxter Richard Baxter, Leonard Bacon, 1844 India's Sentinel: Select Writings of Air Commodore Jasjit Singh AVSM, VrC, VM (Retd) Dr Manpreet Sethi, Dr Shalini Chawla, 2014-07-15 Air Commodore Jasjit Singh was one of India s foremost strategic analysts The only constant for him in over three decades of research analyses and writing was the centrality of national interest Indeed the man never let the nation down whether as an air warrior or a strategist ever ready to voice his views irrespective of how the wind was blowing and always remaining practical in approach Ever an optimist he believed that India would inevitably rise to power by the sheer size of its economy and human resource potential A greater concern for him however was the need to sensitize his compatriots to the national security challenges that would arise as the country rose and to equip them with the capability to optimally address these He did so through his writings and talks This book is a modest compilation of his select writings on two specific issues nuclear strategy and Pakistan since he considered these as critical amongst India s many security challenges Of course the range of Jasjit Singh s writings and the expanse of his knowledge is immense and beyond capture in one book But this is a small effort in the direction of spreading his message ideas to the current and future generation of scholars and policy makers Hopefully it will encourage students of national security to look for more of his writings beyond the few that we have been able to carry in this volume Select Practical Writings of David Dickson David Dickson,2024-04-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1845
