Perspectives on Literature and Translation Brian Nelson, Brigid Maher, 2013-10-15 This volume explores the relationship between literature and translation from three perspectives the creative dimensions of the translation process the way texts circulate between languages and the way texts are received in translation by new audiences The distinctiveness of the volume lies in the fact that it considers these fundamental aspects of literary translation together and in terms of their interconnections Contributors examine a wide variety of texts including world classics poetry genre fiction transnational literature and life writing from around the world Both theoretical and empirical issues are covered with some contributors approaching the topic as practitioners of literary translation and others writing from within the academy Lord Kames: Selected Writings Andreas Rahmatian, 2017-01-31

The judge jurist and philosopher Henry Home Lord Kames 1696 1782 was a polymath and one of the principal personalities of the Scottish Enlightenment As a teacher and mentor of Adam Smith Thomas Reid and David Hume to some extent he published works on law and legal history moral philosophy aesthetics and rhetoric anthropology and sociology of law and on the economic and agricultural improvement of Scotland He saw these disciplines as elements of a philosophical history of man that developed in certain stages and he considered law as part of all these subjects Kames was a widely read author in the eighteenth century and some of his works were translated into French and German at the time His influence on German men of letters and on some of the Founders of the United States was considerable This anthology contains characteristic passages from Kames s works particularly from his Sketches of the History of Man 1774 a comprehensive synoptic work which presents Kames s idea of the progress of man of society and of the sciences from the Essays on the Principles of Morality and Natural Religion 1751 a critique of Hume and an important work of Scottish Common Sense philosophy from the Elements of Criticism 1762 on aesthetics rhetoric and literary criticism and from the Principles of Equity 1760 and the Historical Law Tracts 1758 as his main works on law and legal history Ferenc Morton Szasz: A Celebration and Selected Writings Mark T. Banker, 2018-09-17

Ferenc Morton Szasz was a lifelong student who became a professor of history at the University of New Mexico As a one year appointment at the Albuquerque campus evolved into a forty year career Szasz glimpsed the predictable unpredictability that he would eventually discern as one of history s most enduring and elusive traits The connections and consequences along the way forged a truly exceptional life and career A master of the United States history survey Szasz enthralled and inspired tens of thousands of students with energy enthusiasm provocative insights and good will Ambitious undergraduates regularly vied with graduate students for coveted seats in his upper level courses where he offered insights into World War II American religious history and popular culture Szasz s interests he insisted were the ideas of the people and how they shift over time In an era when historical scholarship became increasingly specialized he pursued an eclectic array of research interests and challenged his doctoral students to do the same The ten selections of Szasz s writings that are the primary content of this volume balance insights into history s great moments with attention to events and details often overlooked by more conventional historians Szasz s crisp accessible prose reveals both the unique and universal in the human experience and offers heartfelt glimpses into humanity s paradoxical promises and perils Back cover
