Selection Of Contemporary Chinese Painti:

Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2014-06-15 Since the confirmation of Deng Xiaoping's policy of Opening and Reform in 1978 the People's Republic of China has undergone a liberalization of culture that has led to the production of numerous forms of avant garde experimental and museum based art With a fast growing international market and a thriving artistic community contemporary Chinese art is riding a wave of prosperity though issues of censorship still abound Shedding light on the current art scene Paul Gladston's Contemporary Chinese Art puts China's recent artistic output into the context of the wider cultural economic and political conditions that surround it Providing a critical mapping of ideas and practices that have shaped the development of Chinese art Gladston shows how these combine to bind it to the structure of power and state both within and outside of China Focusing principally on art produced by artists from mainland China including painting film video photography and performance he also discusses art created in Taiwan Hong Kong Macau and diasporic communities Illustrated with 150 images Contemporary Chinese Art unravels the complexities of politics artistic practice and culture in play in China's art scene

Deconstructing Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2015-08-21 The book presents a range of articles and discussions that offer critical insights into the development of contemporary Chinese art both within China and internationally It brings together selected writings both published and unpublished by Paul Gladston one of the foremost international scholars on contemporary Chinese art The articles are based on extensive first hand research much of which was carried out during an extended residence in China between 2005 and 2010 In contrast to many other writers on contemporary Chinese art Gladston analyses his subject with specific reference to the concerns of critical theory In his writings he consistently argues for a polylogic multi voiced approach to research and analysis grounded in painstaking attention to local regional and international conditions of artistic production reception and display

Xiandai Zhongguo Hua Jicui, 1981 中国当代美术史, 1990 Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art

Six Contemporary Chinese Women Artists Lucy Lim, 1991 Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art's rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan's The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin's sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out simplistic Western interpretations of their artworks as social and political critiques a perspective that privileged stories of dissidence over deep engagement with the art itself Through in depth case studies of these five artists Peggy Wang offers a corrective to previous appraisals demonstrating how their works address fundamental questions about the forms meanings and possibilities of art By the end of the 1980s Chinese artists were scrutinizing earlier waves of Western influence and turning instead to their own heritage and culture to forge their own future histories As the national trauma of the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre converged with the mounting expansion of the global art world these artists turned to art as a profoundly generative site for grappling with their place in the world Wang demonstrates how they consciously and energetically sought to make their own ideas about art and art history visible in contemporary art Wang s argument is informed by extensive primary research including close examination of the artworks analysis of Chinese language documents and archives and deeply personal interviews with the artists Their words uncover layers of meaning previously obscured by the popular and often recycled assessments that many of these works have received until now Beyond Wang s reinterpretation of these individual artists she contributes to an urgent conversation on the future direction of art history how do we map engagements between art from different parts of the world that are embedded within different art histories What does it mean for histories of contemporary art and art history more generally to be inclusive The new understandings offered in this book can and should be engaged when considering current hierarchies in histories of Chinese art the global art world and the intersections between them
