Colonial Girlhood in Literature, Culture and History, 1840-1950 K. Moruzi, M. Smith, 2014-08-25 Colonial Girlhood in Literature Culture and History 1840 1950 explores a range of real and fictional colonial girlhood experiences from Jamaica Mauritius South Africa India New Zealand Australia England Ireland and Canada to reflect on the transitional state of girlhood between childhood and adulthood In Search of the Never-Never Ann McGrath, 2019-04-09 Mickey Dewar made a profound contribution to the history of the Northern Territory which she performed across many genres She produced high quality memorable and multi sensory histories including the Cyclone Tracy exhibition at the Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory and the reinterpretation of Fannie Bay Gaol Informed by a great love of books her passion for history was infectious As well as offering three original chapters that appraise her work this edited volume republishes her first book In Search of the Never Never In Dewar's comprehensive and incisive appraisal of the literature of the Northern Territory she provides brilliant often amusing insights into the ever changing representations of a region that has featured so large in the Australian popular imagination The Little Black Princess: A True Tale of Life in the Never-Never Land Jeannie Gunn, 2023-11-11 Jeannie Gunn s The Little Black Princess A True Tale of Life in the Never Never Land is a captivating narrative that delves into the relationship between a European woman and an Indigenous Australian girl in the remote Australian outback Gunn's literary style is characterized by vivid descriptions of the harsh yet beautiful landscape as well as sensitive portrayals of the cultural clashes and misunderstandings that occur in this setting The book is a significant contribution to Australian literature offering readers a glimpse into the complexities of race relations and colonialism during the early 20th century Jeannie Gunn also known as Mrs Aeneas Gunn was a pioneering author who drew inspiration from her own experiences living in the Australian outback Her firsthand knowledge of the challenges and triumphs of life in the bush shines through in this novel making it a powerful and authentic portrayal of a bygone era I highly recommend The Little Black Princess to readers interested in Australian literature colonial history and cross cultural relationships Gunn s thoughtful exploration of identity belonging and empathy makes this book a compelling and thought provoking read for anyone interested in issues of diversity and inclusion The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society From Colonial to Modern Michelle J. Smith, Kristine Moruzi, Clare Bradford, 2018-01-01 From Colonial to Modern examines representations of girls in Canadian Australian and New Zealand girls literature to trace how colonial authors transformed British feminine norms to produce transnational ideals and modern nationalised femininities

Ijamama Speaks: Wisdom of a Black Sistah from the Urban Hood Frederick Douglas Harper, 2017-03-25 Ijamama Speaks is a hilarious satire Ijamama is a woman from the urban Hood who is accidentally discovered by a feminist magazine Hot Heifer after she stood up to a sexist law that allowed men to be topless in public but not women A published interview of Ijamama in Hot Heifer magazine leads to her cohosting a feminist late night TV show and eventually getting her own late night TV show The Ijamama Tell It Like It Is Midnight Show targeted to urban blacks college students and working class women Although very funny Ijamama Speaks presents meaningful lessons about rightful living and quality living through dialogues of host Ijamama with her diverse TV guests Some of her guests include Celibate Dude Lead Belly Benevolent Angel Smart Ass White Boy Dr Fartenstein PumpDaddy Spiritual Teacher Bootylicious Queens Preacher Teacher Little Red Rapper Loser Becomes Princess Shi YiDianXia, 2020-06-30 Transcending from another world to from da Hood and HoneyBaby become a trash Surrender to a beautiful man and become the sovereign imperial concubine Intersectional Encounters in the Nineteenth-Century Archive Rachel Bryant Davies, Erin Johnson-Williams, 2022-08-11 Rachel Bryant Davies and Erin Johnson Williams lead a cast of renowned scholars to initiate an interdisciplinary conversation about the mechanisms of power that have shaped the nineteenth century archive to ask What is a nineteenth century archive broadly defined This landmark collection of essays will broach critical and topical questions about how the complex discourses of power involved in constructions of the nineteenth century archive have impacted and continue to impact constructions of knowledge across disciplinary boundaries and beyond academic confines The essays written from a range of disciplinary perspectives grapple with urgent problems of how to deal with potentially sensitive nineteenth century archival items both within academic scholarship and in present day public facing institutions which often reflect erotic colonial and imperial racist sexist violent or elitist ideologies Each contribution grapples with these questions from a range of perspectives Musicology Classics English History Visual Culture and Museums and Archives The result is far reaching historical excavation of archival The Australian Country Girl: History, Image, Experience Catherine Driscoll, 2016-03-23 The Australian experiences Country Girl History Image Experience offers a detailed analysis of the experience and the image of Australian country girlhood In Australia country girl names a field of experiences and life stories by girls and women who have grown up outside of the demographically dominant urban centres But it also names a set of ideas about Australia that is surprisingly consistent across the long twentieth century despite also working as an index of changing times For a long period in Australian history well before Federation and long after it public and popular culture openly equated Australian character with rural life This image of Australian ness sometimes went by the name of the bush man now a staple of Australian history This has been counterbalanced post World War II and increased immigration by an image of sophisticated Australian modernity located in multicultural cities These images of Australia balance rather than contradict one another in many ways and the more cosmopolitan image of Australia is often in dialogue with that preceding image of the bush This book does not offer a corrective to the story of Australian national identity but rather a fresh perspective on this history and a new focus on the ever changing experience of Australian rural life It argues that the country girl has not only been a long standing counterpart to the Australian bush man she has more importantly figured as a point of dialogue between the country and the city for popular culture and for public sphere narratives about Australian society and identity A History of the Book in Australia, 1891-1945 Martyn Lyons, John Arnold, 2001 Collection of essays and case studies outlining Australian book production and consumption from the 1880s to the end of World War II Explores all aspects of print culture including authorship editing design and printing publication distribution bookselling libraries and reading habits Includes photos contributor notes bibliography and index Two further books in the A History of the Book in Australia project are planned Lyons is Professor of History at the University of New South Wales He has previously written with Lucy Taksa Australian Readers Remember Arnold is Deputy Director of the National Centre for Australian Studies Monash University He has previously co edited the Biography of Australian Literature A E The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1905 Handbook of Autoethnography Tony E. Adams, Stacy Holman Jones, Carolyn Ellis, 2021-07-21 Awards 2023 H L Bud Goodall Jr and Nick Trujillo It s a Way of Life Award in Narrative Ethnography from the International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry Meditations on the Story I Cannot Write Reflexivity Autoethnography and the Possibilities of Maybe received the 2023 National Communication Association's Ethnography Division Best Book Chapter Award The second edition of the award winning Handbook of Autoethnography is a thematically organized volume that contextualizes contemporary practices of autoethnography and examines how the field has developed since the publication of the first edition in 2013 Throughout contributors identify key autoethnographic themes and commitments and offer examples of diverse thoughtful effective applied and innovative autoethnography. The second edition is organized into five sections. In Section 1 Doing Autoethnography contributors explore definitions of autoethnography identify and demonstrate key features of autoethnography and engage philosophical relational cultural and ethical foundations of autoethnographic practice In Section 2 Representing Autoethnography contributors discuss forms and techniques for the process and craft of creating autoethnographic projects using various media in as autoethnography and marking and making visible particular identities knowledges and voices In Section 3 Teaching Evaluating and Publishing Autoethnography contributors focus on supporting and supervising autoethnographic projects They also offer perspectives on publishing and evaluating autoethnography In Section 4 Challenges and Futures of Autoethnography contributors consider contemporary challenges for autoethnography including understanding autoethnography as a feminist posthumanist and decolonialist practice as well as a method for studying texts translations and traumas The volume concludes with Section 5 Autoethnographic Exemplars a collection of sixteen classic and contemporary texts that can serve as models of autoethnographic scholarship With contributions from more than 50 authors representing more than a dozen disciplines and writing from various locations around the world the handbook develops refines and expands autoethnographic inquiry and qualitative research This text will be a primary resource for novice and advanced researchers alike in a wide range of social science disciplines Fielder, 2020-09-21 In Relative Races Brigitte Fielder presents an alternative theory of how race is ascribed Contrary to notions of genealogies by which race is transmitted from parents to children the examples Fielder discusses from nineteenth century literature history and popular culture show how race can follow other directions Desdemona becomes less than fully white when she is smudged with Othello s blackface a white woman becomes Native American when she is adopted by a Seneca family and a mixed race baby casts doubt on the whiteness of his mother Fielder shows that the genealogies of race are especially visible in the racialization of white women whose whiteness often depends on their ability to reproduce white family and white supremacy Using black feminist and queer theories Fielder presents readings of personal narratives novels plays stories poems and images to illustrate how interracial kinship follows non heteronormative non biological and non O. Brown, 2013-07-05 This has inspired her to capture on paper some of the once in a lifetime preciously innocent and often times hilarious moments that she survived through while raising her 3 children This is just one book out of a series of three that was inspired by the tender moments she has shared particularly within the first 10 years of her childrens lives So if you need a moment to pretend that all is well in the world turn off the evening news grab your children and snuggle up in a chair real close and drift off into a world full of childish giggles and pure innocent laughter And dont forget to tell your kids just how much you LOVE and ADORE them Reading Race Clare Bradford, 2013-05-09 How do children's books relate to the cultures that produce them and how do they influence those cultures In Reading Race Clare Bradford looks at representations of Australia s indigenous peoples in texts for children She shows how these varying representations have helped to colour the attitudes beliefs and assumptions of different generations of Australians To what extent have children s books enabled readers to understand Aboriginal culture relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people and relationships between Aboriginality and national identity Bradford draws on examples from popular and literary children s books of all genres fiction non fiction picture books and school texts She reveals that many children s books display the tensions and uncertainties inherent in relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people Bradford also uncovers the different ideologies of race that have informed Australian children's texts from the nineteenth century to currently popular writers demonstrating cultural shifts in the representation of Aboriginality over time. The result is a ground breaking and intelligent picture of how Australian children's books by both white and Aboriginal writers have negotiated the matter of race Reading Race will enhance the ways in which we come to read and understand the complex and delicate issues around Aboriginal white relations It will be an invaluable resource in the fields of post colonial studies Indigenous and Aboriginal studies literary and cultural studies and children's literature
