Justin acquires for safe keeping the scroll he seeks from the High Priest of a Temple of Vorell that comes under attack. With the help of Norva Lemni Justin then gets food and medical shipments headed North to help the people whom the mobs looted. He then forces a Warlord responsible for at least some of the mobs into a spear fight. Justin then uses the results of the spear fight to recruit a tribe called Ngoba to seize a government arms depot in Zimboja. With the Ngoba in control of the depot the political situation is balanced with several tribes too evenly matched for a war to be profitable. However there is a second Warlord and he sends a leopard man to kill Justin. Justin uses the situation to his advantage. He then learns through an Ngoba Chief that there is a large gold mine in the North of Zimboja. Justin then manages to convince the Prime Minister of Zimboja to grant him the mining concession in return for solving problems at the mine. Justin and Ngoba warriors then seize the mine. Justin then becomes involved with a sisterhood organization in which at least the leaders have paranormal powers. The gaining of the paranormal powers came about due to a visit by a white man almost certainly Lord Vorell. With information gained from the sisterhood Justin then disposes of the remaining Warlord. Justin still has his second chance.

Furry Tales Fred Patten, 2019-09-26. Tales featuring anthropomorphic animals have been around as long as there have been storytellers to spin them from Aesop's Fables to Reynard the Fox to Alice in Wonderland. The genre really took off following the explosion of furry fandom in the 21st century with talking animals featuring in everything from science fiction to fantasy to LGBTQ coming out stories. In his lifetime Fred Patten 1940-2018 one of the founders of furry fandom and a scholar of anthropomorphic animal literature authored hundreds of book reviews that comprise a comprehensive critical survey of the genre. This selected compilation provides an overview from 1784 through the 2010s covering such popular novels as Watership Down and Redwall along with forgotten gems like The Stray Lamb and Where the Blue Begins and science fiction works like Sundiver and Decision at Doona.

Lost in Space Jon Schiller, 2009. The US Space Shuttle delivering supplies to the US Space Station has a mechanical breakdown that prevents its return to the Earth. The remaining two US Space Shuttles are launched as quickly as possible to carry the needed supplies to the Space Station before the people there run out of expendables: air, water, etc. Both aging Shuttles suffer breakdowns: one explodes on the launch pad and the other has a breakdown in orbit near the Space Station. This second Shuttle is close enough to the Space Station to be secured by a cable and then winched up to the Space Station docking gate. The hero Dr. Donald Richards devises two options for rescuing the stranded astronauts: use the new European Space Station Shuttle or use the Soviet Space Shuttle. The US President overrules NASA's recommendation to use the Soviet Space Shuttle for the rescue so Richards negotiates an agreement with the European Space Agency to use their Shuttle to rescue the astronauts.

The Age of Infidelity and Other Stories Valerie Sayers, 2020-06-03. In the spirit of Muriel Spark and Walker Percy, The Age of Infidelity's eleven stories embrace the comic, the absurd, and the dead serious. Faithless parents betray their children, the young betray the old, and lovers betray each other, but somehow these characters cling to hope. Aging white cheerleaders shout through an online megaphone remembering a
