Self Advocacy In The Lives Of People With Learning Difficulties The Politics Of Resilience:

Self-advocacy in the Lives of People with Learning Difficulties Dan Goodley,2000 How do people with the label of learning difficulties challenge disabling environments What role can professionals play in supporting such challenges How do self advocacy groups contribute to disability politics and the development of theories of disability This timely book sets out to answer these questions for students teachers and practitioners working in the field It examines self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties The term learning difficulties is used to describe people who have been labelled at some point in their lives as requiring specialist mental handicap services Learning difficulties is preferred over other synonyms such as mental handicap mental impairment or learning disabilities because it is the term preferred by many in the self advocacy movement the focus of this book Hitherto a number of books have introduced and examined the notion of self advocacy This volume goes beyond these studies to offer an appraisal of self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties that is grounded in their own experiences It redresses the dominant focus on learning difficulties as pathology or tragedy highlighting the ways in which people so labelled are fighting for their own human rights in a disabling society through their involvement in self advocacy groups It outlines a number of lessons for supporters policy makers professionals and service providers in relation to the resilience of self advocates with learning difficulties and gives examples of good practice

Learning Disability Grant, Gordon,Ramcharan, Paul,Flynn, Margaret,2010-05-01 Learning Disability uses a life cycle approach to show how those with learning disabilities can be helped most at different stages in their lives Exploring Experiences of Advocacy by People with Learning Disabilities Duncan Mitchell,2006 This book charts the course through which people with learning disabilities have become increasingly able to direct their own lives as fully active members of their communities Many of the personal accounts photographs and songs included in this book will be accessible and encouraging to people with learning disabilities

Rights in Practice for People with a Learning Disability Liz Tilly,Jan Walmsley,2023-12-29 This book aims to raise awareness about the possibility of achieving the goals of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCRPD in order for all disabled people to enjoy the benefit of human rights The stories of people who have been supported to enjoy their rights and their citizenship will enable readers to focus on how services and support can enable people with a learning disability to have their rights upheld with an outcome of citizenship independence and achievement Despite the UNCRDP being in place since 2006 a significant number of learning disability service provider organisations and professionals in the UK are not aware of its existence This book aims to bridge the gap between policy and practice to demonstrate the value of a human rights approach as the foundation for services and support for people with a learning disability Disability Through the Life Course Tamar Heller,Sarah Parker Harris,2012 The SAGE Reference Series on Disability is a cross disciplinary and issues based series incorporating links from varied fields that make up Disability Studies This volume tackles issues relating to disability through the life course

Learning

Difficulties and Sexual Vulnerability Andrea Hollomotz, 2011-08-15 People with learning difficulties are considerably more likely to experience sexual violence than those without and for this reason they are often described as vulnerable This book argues that treating adults with learning difficulties as vulnerable leaves them with fewer of the skills which are needed to protect themselves from harm

Social Work with People with Learning Difficulties Paul Williams, Michelle Evans, 2013-04-15 Part of the Transforming Social Work Practice series this title intends to support students on the social work degree It seeks to confirm and strengthen social work values and principles so that the progress and successes achieved by Valuing People can continue

Disability and Social Movements Rachel Carling-Jenkins, 2016-05-23 This book provides the reader with a ground breaking understanding of disability and social movements By describing how disability is philosophically historically and theoretically positioned Carling Jenkins is able to then examine disability relationally through an evaluation of the contributions of groups engaged in similar human rights struggles The book locates disability rights as a new social movement and provides an explanation for why disability has been divided rather than united in Australia Finally it investigates whether the recent campaign to implement a national disability insurance scheme represents a re emergence of the movement It will be of interest to all scholars and students of both disability studies and social movements

Disabling Barriers - Enabling Environments John Swain, Sally French, Colin Barnes, Carol Thomas, 2013-11-10 Since it was first published in 1993 Disabling Barriers Enabling Environments has established itself as essential reading for anyone coming to the subject of disability studies The book tackles a wide range of issues in numerous succinct chapters written by contributing authors many of whom are disabled themselves From the outset the chapters take a multidisciplinary and international approach The third edition is made up of 42 chapters 15 of which are completely new to this edition including Early seminal writings in disabled studies Death and dying Psychology Hate crime and the criminal justice system Sport Psycho emotional disablism and internal oppression This seminal textbook conveys the continuing developments in the lives and experiences of disabled people It is valuable reading for students and professionals in the fields of social work sociology social policy health and nursing as well as disabled people
