Self And Cinema A Transformalist Perspective:

Self and Cinema Beverle Houston, Marsha Kinder, 1980      Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities      Concepts in Film Theory J. Dudley Andrew, 1984-03-15 Concepts in Film Theory is a continuation of Dudley Andrew's classic The Major Film Theories In writing now about contemporary theory Andrew focuses on the key concepts in film study perception representation signification narrative structure adaptation evaluation identification figuration and interpretation Beginning with an introductory chapter on the current state of film theory Andrew goes on to build an overall view of film presenting his own ideas on each concept and giving a sense of the interdependence of these concepts Andrew provides lucid explanations of theories which involve perceptual psychology and structuralism semiotics and psychoanalysis hermeneutics and genre study His clear approach to these often obscure theories enables students to acquire the background they need to enrich their understanding of film and of art      Theories of Cinema, 1945-1995 Francesco Casetti, 1999 A collection of essays on the principal ideologies in film studies      Film Theory: Rational Reconstructions Warren Buckland, 2012-03-29 In Film Theory Rational Reconstructions Warren Buckland asks a series of questions about how film theory gets written in the first place How does it select its objects of study and its methods of inquiry How does it make discoveries and explain filmic phenomena And How does it formulate and solve theoretical problems He asks these questions of film theory through a rational reconstruction and a classical commentary Both frameworks clarify and reformulate vague and inexact expressions redefine obscure concepts and examine the underlying logic of film theory arguments This not only subjects film theory to rigorous examination it also teaches students how to write theory by enabling them to question and critically interrogate the logic of previous film theory arguments The book consists of nine chapters that closely examine a series of canonical film books and essays in great detail by Peter Wollen Laura Mulvey Thomas Elsaesser Stephen Heath and Slavoj Žižek among others      Encyclopedia of Communication Theory Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2009-08-18 With more than 300 entries these two volumes provide a one stop source for a comprehensive overview of communication theory offering current descriptions of theories as well as the background issues and concepts that comprise these theories This is the first resource to summarize in one place the diversity of theory in the communication field Key Themes Applications and Contexts Critical Orientations Cultural Orientations Cybernetic and Systems Orientations Feminist Orientations Group and Organizational Concepts Information Media and Communication Technology International and Global Concepts Interpersonal Concepts Non Western Orientations Paradigms Traditions and Schools Philosophical Orientations Psycho Cognitive Orientations Rhetorical Orientations Semiotic Linguistic and Discursive Orientations Social Interactional

Orientalism Theory Metatheory Methodology and Inquiry      Phenomenological Approaches to Popular Culture Michael Thomas Carroll, Eddie Tafoya, 2000 Within popular culture studies one finds discussions about quantitative sociology Marxism psychoanalysis myth criticism feminism and semiotics but hardly a word on the usefulness of phenomenology the branch of philosophy concerned with human experience In spite of this omission there is a close relationship between the aims of phenomenology and the aims of popular culture studies for both movements have attempted to redirect academic study toward everyday lived experience The fifteen essays in this volume demonstrate the way in which phenomenological approaches can illuminate popular culture studies and in so doing they take on the entire range of popular culture

Ingmar Bergman's The Silence Maaret Koskinen, 2011-07-01 Ingmar Bergman's 1963 film The Silence was made at a point in his career when his stature as one of the great art film directors allowed him to push beyond the boundaries of what was acceptable to censorship boards in Sweden and the United States The film's depiction of sexuality was as Judith Crist wrote at the time in the New York Herald Tribune not for the prudish Yet Bergman's notebooks and screenplays reveal his tendency for self-censorship both to dampen the literary quality of his screenwriting and to alter portions of the script that Bergman ultimately deemed too provocative Maaret Koskinen a professor of cinema studies and film critic for Sweden's largest national daily newspaper was the first scholar given access to Bergman's private papers during the last years of his life Bergman's notebooks reveal the difficulties he experienced in writing for the medium of moving images and his meditations on the relationship or its lack between moving images and the spoken or written word Koskinen's attention to this intermedial framework is anchored in a close reading of the film focusing on the many faceted relationships between images and dialogue music sound and silence The Silence offers filmgoers an entryway into the cinematic cultural and sociopolitical issues of its time but remains a classic rich enough for scrutiny from a variety of perspectives and methodologies Koskinen draws a picture of Bergman that challenges the traditional view of him as an auteur revealing his attempts to overcome his own image as a creator of serious art films by making his work relevant to a new generation of filmgoers Her exploration of the film touches on issues of censorship and the cinema of small nations while shedding new light on the shifting views of Bergman and auteurist film high art and popular culture      Ingmar Bergman Birgitta

Steene, 2005 Exhaustive compendium by one of the world's foremost experts on the Swedish master covers Bergman's life his cultural background his entire artistic career and extensive annotated bibliographies of interviews and critical writings on Bergman      Robert Bresson Keith Reader, 2019-01-04 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the work of Robert Bresson one of the most respected and acclaimed directors in the history of cinema The first monograph on his work to appear in English for many years dealing not only with his thirteen feature length films but also his little seen early short Affaires publiques and his short treatise Notes on cinematography The films are considered in chronological order using a perspective that draws variously on spectator theory Catholic mysticism gender theory and Lacanian psychoanalysis The major critical responses to his work from the adulatory to the dismissive are summarized and analyzed The work includes a full filmography and a critical bibliography      Wes Anderson's Symbolic Storyworld Warren Buckland,2018-10-18 Wes Anderson's Symbolic Storyworld presents a theoretical investigation of what makes the films of Wes Anderson distinctive Chapter by chapter it relentlessly pulls apart each of Anderson's narratives to pursue the proposition that they all share the same deep underlying symbolic values a common symbolic storyworld Taking the polemical strategy of outlining and employing Claude Lévi-Strauss's distinguished and notorious work on myth and kinship to analyze eight of Anderson's films Warren Buckland unearths the peculiar symbolic structure of each film plus the circuits of exchange tangible and intangible gift giving and unusual kinship systems that govern the lives of Anderson's characters He also provides an analysis of Wes Anderson's visual and aural style identifying several distinctive traits of Anderson's mise en scène      Film and the Dream Screen Robert T. Eberwein,2014-07-14 Robert T Eberwein uses a hypothesis from psychoanalytic theory to explore the frequently noticed similarity between dreaming and watching a film His comprehensive study of the relationship between films and dreams explains the film screen as a psychic structure Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Transformational Ethics of Film Martin P. Rossouw,2021-05-31 What is the good of the film experience And how does the budding field of film as philosophy answer this question Charting new routes for film ethics Martin P Rossouw develops a critical account of the transformational ethics at work within the film as philosophy debate Whenever philosophers claim that films can do philosophy they also persistently put forward edifying practical effects potential transformations of thought and experience as the benefit of viewing such films Through rigorous appraisals of key arguments and with reference to the cinema of Terrence Malick Rossouw pieces together the idea of an inner makeover through cinema a cinemakeover which casts a distinct vision of film spectatorship as a practice of self transformation Recasting much of the existing debate Martin Rossouw's emphasis on film's power for enacting ethical transformation rather than theoretical insight or discovery gives a much needed shot in the arm to a topic whose development has stalled in recent years This highly original book offers a unique and provocative contribution to the scholarship Rossouw is a persistent questioner often demonstrating sharp philosophical instincts Shawn Loht Philosophy in Review Vol 43 no 1 February 2023 At once a comprehensive record and a ceaseless meta critique Rossouw's Transformational Ethics of Film is a thorough and bittersweet investigation into the aspiration and limits of this strand of film philosophy scholarship Rossouw's detailed commitment to this critical exercise both provides a bountiful resource for film ethics scholarship bringing organized clarity to an otherwise scattered but nonetheless commanding school of thought and presents a potentially radical prospect for the position of meta hermeneutics in the world of art theory Daniel E Smith New Review of Film and Television Studies Vol 22 no 2 July 2024 The Film Anthologies Index Stephen E. Bowles, 1994-10 The Film Anthologies Index is a bibliographical resource essential to any person or institution interested in the study of film No publication or database currently indexes the contents of these important anthologies There are over 600 anthologies by both multiple and single authors in English that have been published through 1991 These anthologies contain over 10 000 stand alone pieces that 1 reprint articles from their original source 2 select excerpts from book length publications and 3 include original essays appearing only in a specialized anthology Without The Film Anthologies Index the researcher would have no guide to the valuable contents between the covers of these anthologies Much more than just a guide to the contents of anthologies the main section consists of 6 563 numbered entries that alphabetically list by author the contents of each piece found in the anthologies You could find for example all pieces written by a particular author which have appeared in the anthologies Additionally every author entry refers the user to all the anthologized sources which contain each specific piece For example Robert Warshow's landmark essay on Movie Chronicle The Westerner can be found in 9 different anthologies or that selected essays by Sergei Einstein appear in over 50 separate anthologies Without The Film Anthologies Index there would be no way to systematically locate these buried treasures The final section of The Film Anthologies Index consists of an extensive listing of all film titles individual names specific genres countries periods studios etc as well as all key words and phrases that appear in the titles of the included pieces There are approximately 7000 topics covered in this section The user friendly layout of this reference source makes it both a comprehensive resource for everyone from the casual movie goer who wants a deeper understanding of the medium to the dedicated film scholar who is pursuing material on Mujerista Moviemaking Teresa Osa Hidalgo-de la Riva, 2004 Cantrill's Filmnotes, 1980 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1981 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals
