Self Ministry Through Self Understanding:

Self-ministry Through Self-understanding Robert J. Wicks, 1990 Self Ministry or the pastoral care of the self is a growing concern among Christians everywhere who want to know how they can keep their own emotional fires burning while extending their warmth to others This book is a unique attempt to integrate psychological methods of self examination with spiritual principles of discernment

Henri Nouwen and Soul Care Wil Hernandez, 2008 In examining Henri Nouwen's approach to the ministry of soul care and spiritual formation at close range we can conclude that his holistic and integrative style is essentially drawn from his sophisticated understanding of the coinherence of spirituality with psychology ministry and theology Henri Nouwen's ministry is characterized by a ministry of integration primarily because he first of all embodied a spirituality of integration His ministry was but an overflow of his spirituality Unquestionably Nouwen ministered out of who he was as a person a person of deep integrity The author contends that Henri Nouwen's work of soul care and spiritual formation is never about techniques Neither is it about programs and curricula important as they are in ministry More importantly it is definitely not about roles even though multiple roles have been attached to his person

Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard John Clinebell, Howard Clinebell, Bridget Clare McKeever, 2011 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish

Handbook of Spirituality for Ministers Robert J. Wicks, 1995 An applied spirituality handbook that covers an array of topics relevant to professionals daily work in pastoral care

Pastoral Care and the Means of Grace Ralph L. Underwood, 1992-10-01 The emphasis on pastoral freedom is nearly spent and found wanting Many caregivers today are seeking to balance such freedom with a sense of God's transcendence and communal order which entail personal and ritual formation In Underwood's resulting spirituality the soul of pastoral care is prayer The substance is Scripture studied in both liturgical and personal settings The evangelical principle is reconciliation Baptism lays the foundation for pastoral care by providing the paradigm for all transformations Eucharist constitutes the eschatological horizon for pastoral care as ministry in the human encounter of God's presence This winsomely written book stands at the forefront of a broad movement among scholars and clergy in nonliturgical traditions that aims at retrieving explicitly religious resources the means of grace The result is a rare truly ecumenical contribution to pastoral care which deepens practice by providing a vision and a spirituality

Women's Spirituality Joanne Wolski Conn, 2005-11-01 Women's Spirituality is an enlarged and revised edition of the widely used anthology that looks at the spiritual and psychological dimensions of women's lives Using classical and contemporary texts the present volume illuminates the way feminist issues find grounding in great spiritual teachers such as Teresa of Avila John of the Cross Ignatius Loyola and Jane de Chantal Four sections develop the central theme The first

considers contemporary issues women in ministry different forms of feminist spirituality and sexism in the church The second provides contemporary resources for psychological development The third gives examples of spiritual development in the biblical Ignatian Carmelite and Salesian traditions The final section considers new visions of women s spirituality in the present day Contributors to this volume include Anne Carr Joann Wolski Conn Kathleen Fischer Constance FitzGerald James Fowler Carol Gilligan Rosemary Haughton Elizabeth A Johnson Robert Kegan John McDargh Jean Baker Miller Sandra M Schneiders Elisabeth Sch ssler Fiorenza Mary Jo Weaver Rowan Williams and Wendy M Wright Surviving Ministry Michael E. Osborne, 2016-05-06 Being a pastor has its rewards and pleasures But churches can be unsafe places They are filled with broken imperfect people Many ministers of the gospel walk into a church naive about the potential hazards of their vocation They are vulnerable to difficult people unresolved conflict incompatible visions hidden agendas mission drift and sin their own and that of others Other pastors feel trapped in a ministry hurricane and don t know what to do They feel like failures They re thinking about leaving the ministry They are looking for help and hope not from an expert detached from the real world of ministry but from someone who has suffered through church hurricanes and lived to share the story Moreover they need to know they are not alone Surviving Ministry How to Weather the Storms of Church Leadership includes the author s own story as well as true stories from other pastors who have been in the eye of the hurricane Discouraged ministers looking for biblical practical gospel centered advice for storm proofing their churches homes and hearts have found a friend Surviving Ministry will equip them to stay resilient before during and after seasons of difficulty The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion, Lewis S. Mudge, 2007-12-12 The nature and story of the Christian church is immensely important to theology students and scholars alike Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues It divides into six parts the church in its historical context the different denominational traditions global perspectives methods and debates in ecclesiology key concepts and themes ecclesiology and other disciplines social sciences philosophy literature and film Authoritative accessible and easily navigable this book is indispensable for everyone interested in the nature and history of the Christian Church Promising Nothing Neal J. Anthony, 2021-02-23 Can the categories of classical Lutheran Christology be unleashed to express the vitality of christological existence an existence situated between Promise and experience If as Martin Luther famously asserted in his Heidelberg Disputation 1518 true theology and recognition of God are in the crucified Christ then such a theological point of departure not only bore radical implications for his Christology but indeed also bears profound significance for theological discussions around the Word of Promise its structure its experience its plurality With regard to the elaboration of the two natures of Jesus Christ such a point of departure permits a delineation of Promise the body of Promise who is bound to who suffers the nihil of human existence

Which means such a point of departure affords us equally the opportunity to consider and probe the implications of the nihil as the medium of both threat and Promise Is this a promising threat Or a threatening Promise Ultimately Promise is delineated from within hermeneutical origins the christological function of Scripture the text and developed through to its diverse expression as the body of Promise translated into christological existence Within this context categories of classical Lutheran Christology begin to express new vitality Along the way the Word of Promise as developed within the trajectory of Luther s theology of the cross and his radical delineation of the two natures of Jesus Christ receives further sharpening within the context of discussion with such theological voices as John Caputo and Jacques Derrida Hans Holbein the Younger Albert Schweitzer Matthias Grunewald Carl Braaten Karl Barth Michael Welker and Samuel Terrien Ultimately we are permitted to confess There is one Crucified And he is plural One for the Other Andrew P. Campbell,2025-06-24 For two thousand years the cross of Christ has been the central point of Christian theologies of salvation However in recent years a variety of theologians such as Rosemary Radford Ruether Rita Nakashima Brock J Denny Weaver and Ren Girard united in their disdain for violence have abandoned any divine sanction or salvific significance for the cross of Christ Instead they frame atonement not in terms of Christ s death but his life formulating atonement theologies that address the need for an ethical concern for the oppressed and powerless Other This volume is dedicated to offering a fair account of their revisions identifying the ethical undertones that lead nonviolent theologians and thinkers to reform atonement theology examining their claims in light of those ethical foundations and exploring P T Forsyth as a viable alternative for contemporary theology

Daring to Share Sandra Beardsall,Mitzi J. Budde,William P. Finding Voice William B. Kincaid,2012-11-30 In Finding Voice Kincaid employs an often used but somewhat elusive metaphor voice as a way of speaking of pastoral identity and contends that a lively imaginative pastoral voice emerges from a thorough grasp of context theology pastoral roles personal journey and systemic dynamics Designed as a text for the field education contextual education and supervised ministry experiences of seminary students and others preparing for congregational leadership Finding Voice examines in depth how people are experiencing each of these constituent parts of pastoral voice at their student ministry sites not only to learn about each of the areas but also to recognize and understand what is being called forth in the students as they engage these five key experiences and begin to visualize their future ministry The book further explores the opportunities created when the five aspects of pastoral identity are in conflict with one another In the absence of any one of these or the imbalance of them pastoral voice gets skewed and vibrant effective ministry is undermined Finding Voice urges students to begin now with field education to engage a practice of ministry that is imaginative courageous nimble and faithful

Reimagining Ministerial Formation David Heywood, 2021-04-30 The Church is currently experiencing a transition in the way it understands and practises both mission and ministry It is to be outward looking engaging with the wider community involving all its members in mission and clergy are to play the role of enablers and equippers of the ministry of the whole church However ministerial formation in colleges and courses throughout the country lags behind this emerging consensus Theological education is still largely based on academic models Reimagining Ministerial Formation offers a new way forward where ministry comes to be about the whole church and ministerial formation is about collaboration between clergy and laity It argues strongly for a shift away from front loaded training to a new focus on formation as a life long process
