The Selfhood of the Human Person John F. Crosby, 1996 Crosby unfolds the mystery of personal uniqueness shedding new light on the unrepeatability of each human person      The Human Person J. Brian, 2019-03-25 In the 20th Century three social revolutions the industrial sexual and technological revolutions challenged the religious convictions of many John Paul II's teaching on the theology of the body was his response to the resulting societal shifts Fr Bransfield explores John Paul II's response to the challenges raised by these revolutions In this context Bransfield then explores how Theology of the Body leads us to live the fullness of the Christian life      The Global Bioethics of Artificial Intelligence and Human Rights

Dominique J. Monlezun, 2020-07-22 Human annihilation has never been so easy Artificial intelligence guided genetic engineered nanotechnology and robotics AI GNR are widely recognized as our most transformative technological revolution ever yet we do not even have a common moral language to unite our pluralistic world to prevent an AI apocalypse should this revolution explode out of our control This book is the first known comprehensive global bioethical analysis of AI and AI GNR by defining the Thomistic Aristotelian personalist foundation of the rights and duties based social contract framework of the United Nations and then applying it to AI As such it creates a compelling approach which will appeal to scientists health professionals policy makers politicians students and anyone interested in our shared survival around shared solutions

Schelling on Truth and Person Nikolaj Zunic, 2022-08-09 Positive philosophy is the name that Friedrich Schelling 1775 1854 gave to a new type of philosophizing that stands in contrast to the so called negative philosophy that is predominant in modern rationalism But what exactly is positive philosophy Schelling on Truth and Person The Meaning of Positive Philosophy argues that its meaning lies in a distinctive view of the human person as a seeker of truth Truth is presented as historically woven in the movement of life with the phenomena of mythology and religion that reveal the human being's falling away from and return to the truth Nikolaj Zunic demonstrates that this novel understanding of truth accompanies the development and expression of positive philosophy itself The anthropological dimension of truth relates to self knowledge the soul spirit and personality and Schelling's positive philosophy sheds light on the grand themes of the meaning of life the ontological question why is there something rather than nothing the enigma of knowledge and reason and the affirmation of the existence of God This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in Schelling's late philosophy as well as broader questions in philosophy concerning meaning truth human nature and rationality      Embodied Souls, Ensouled Bodies Marc Cortez, 2008-09-18 The book explores the relationship between Christology and theological anthropology through the lens provided by the theology of Karl Barth and the mind body discussion in contemporary philosophy of mind It thus comprises two major sections The first develops an understanding of Karl Barth's theological anthropology focusing on three major facets 1 the centrality of Jesus Christ for any real understanding of human persons 2 the resources that such a christologically determined view of human nature has for engaging in interdisciplinary discourse and 3 the ontological implications of this approach for understanding the mind body relationship The second part draws on this theological foundation to consider the implications that Christological anthropology has for analyzing and assessing several prominent ways of explaining the mind body relationship Specifically it interacts with two broad categories of theories nonreductive forms of physicalism and holistic forms of dualism After providing a basic summary of each the book applies the insights gained from Barth s anthropology to ascertain the extent to which the two approaches may be considered christologically adequate

Life in the Trinity: A Catholic Vision of Communion and Deification Philip Krill, 2017-08-28 Inspired by the ressourcement theology of Henri de Lubac Hans Urs von Balthasar and Pope Benedict XVI LIFE IN THE TRINITY is a modest attempt to advance a neo patristic synthesis crucial to the renewal of the Catholic Faith in our times Drawing on the early Church Fathers as well as the personalism of Pope John Paul II LIFE IN THE TRINITY presents Father Son and Holy Spirit as the source goal and archetype of human love and the wellspring of liturgical worship It furnishes us with a Catholic vision of communion and deification inspiring hope for the 21st century

Human Being, Bodily Being Chakravarthi Ram-Prasad, 2018-07-26 Chakravarthi Ram Prasad offers illuminating new perspectives on contemporary phenomenological theories of body and subjectivity based on studies of classical Indian texts that deal with bodily subjectivity Examining four texts from different genres a medical handbook epic dialogue a manual of Buddhist practice and erotic poetry he argues for a phenomenological ecology of bodily subjectivity in health gender contemplation and lovemaking An ecology is a continuous and dynamic system of interrelationships between elements in which the salience accorded to some type of relationship clarifies how the elements it relates are to be identified The paradigm of ecological phenomenology obviates the need to choose between apparently incompatible perspectives of the human The delineation of body is arrived at by working back phenomenologically from the world of experience with the acknowledgement that the point of arrival a conception of what counts as bodiliness is dependent upon the exact motivation for attending to experience the areas of experience attended to and the expressive tools available to the phenomenologist Ecological phenomenology is pluralistic yet integrates the ways experience is attended to and studied permitting apparently inconsistent intuitions about bodiliness to be explored in novel ways Rather than seeing particular framings of our experience as in tension with each other we should see each such framing as playing its own role according to the local descriptive and analytic concern of a text

Life in the Trinity Philip Krill, James McCullough, 2022-11-30 Informed by Scripture and the church fathers and inspired by the ressourcement theology of Henri de Lubac Hans Urs von Balthasar and Pope Benedict XVI this book advances new insight and practical application of the recent retrieval of Trinitarian theology and its vision of human transformation known as deification Father Philip Krill contributes to a growing retrieval of Trinitarian Christianity and a synthesis of the Western and Eastern theological traditions A final section on theosis or deification rounds out this exploration of God s full intentions for the redemption of humanity

the polysemy of the category of otherness in Søren Kierkegaard's authorship as a whole Leo Stan identifies expands upon and discusses the interconnections between four different senses of otherness the other within the human self the infinite alterity of God the paradoxical alterity of Christ and the alterity of the human other He also analyzes in detail the three stages of human existence the aesthetic the ethical and the religious His claim is that in its Kierkegaardian version otherness can be understood only within the redemption oriented framework of Christianity and in strict correlation with an ethic of singular persons

A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P,2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being

Persons in Relation Najib George Awad,2014-05-01 Tracing out the origins of the Trinitarian revival in the modern era particularly on account of the influence of Schleiermacher Tillich Barth Rahner and Pannenberg through to the destabilizing effects of postmodernity on Trinitarian discourse the author provides a critical hermeneutic for the evaluation and implementation of thoughtful Trinitarian theology in the contemporary world Within this frame the author argues for viewing the Trinity as the intellectual and conceptual context and interdisciplinary arena of interaction between theology and other forms of intellectual inquiries to generate a robust multifaceted and historically fluent doctrine of the Trinity

Human Being in Depth Swami Ranganathananda,1991-09-27 This book shows that science and religion should not be antagonistic since both relate to each other in the search for unity and truth Swami Ranganathananda believes that the modern age demands the meeting of the challenges of life with an adequate philosophy That adequacy can be ensured only if the philosophy achieves a happy synthesis between the physical sciences and spirituality This is the specialty of Vedanta Human Being in Depth illustrates the kinship between Vedanta and modern science Religion expounded as a verified and verifiable science has a message for all humanity that spiritual life is a fact that the consciousness within man is a spark of
