Lowance, Race and Respectability in an Early Black Atlantic Cassander L. Smith,2023-10-25 Race and Respectability in an Early Black Atlantic examines the means through which people of African descent embodied tenets of respectability as a coping strategy to navigate enslavement and racial oppression in the early Black Atlantic world The term respectability politics refers to the way members of a minoritized population adopt the customs and manners of a dominant culture in order to gain visibility and combat negative stereotypes about their subject group Today respectability politics can be seen in how those within and outside Black communities police the behavior of Black celebrities critique protest movements and celebrate accomplishments by people of African descent who break racial barriers To study the origins of the complicated relationship between race and respectability Cassander L Smith shows that early American literatures reveal Black communities engaging with issues of respectability from the very beginning of the transatlantic slave trade Concerns about character and comportment influenced the literary production of Black Atlantic communities particularly in the long eighteenth century Uncovering the central importance of respectability as a theme shaping the literary development of cultures throughout the early Black Atlantic Smith illuminates the mechanics of respectability politics in a range of texts including poetry letters and life writing by Phillis Wheatley Olaudah Equiano and expatriates on the west coast of Africa in Sierra Leone Through these early Black texts Race and Respectability in an Early Black Atlantic considers respectability politics as a malleable strategy that has both energized and suppressed Black cultures for centuries Life Upon These Shores Henry Louis Gates,2011 A director of the W E B Du Bois Institute at Harvard presents a sumptuously illustrated chronicle of more than 500 years of African American history that focuses on defining events debates and controversies as well as important achievements of famous and lesser known figures in a volume complemented by reproductions of ancient maps and historical paraphernalia This title was previously list in Forecast The Territorial Papers of the United States Clarence Edwin Carter,John Porter Bloom,1934 The Territorial Papers of the United States ,1939 List of
