Man Overboard Joan Lownds, 2011-09-01 Man Overboard tells the inside story of one of America's most notorious murder cases in decades providing unprecedented insight into the death of Greenwich native George Allen Smith IV on his honeymoon He married Jennifer Hagel in June 2005 Both of them were young and beautiful He came from an old line Greenwich family she from blue collar Cromwell and with a reputation for being a flirt Just eight days after their wedding their new life together disintegrated on their Royal Caribbean honeymoon cruise The morning after several booze fueled melees a gruesome blood stain traced the awning below their cabin and George had vanished After four years of bitter legal wrangling with both families Royal Caribbean recently handed over its files to the FBI which announced that Smith's murder is very active and open Man Overboard provides an extraordinary look into a case that has captured the public imagination and raised provocative questions about the unregulated cruise industry leading directly to the historic Cruise Vessel Security and Safety Act signed by President Obama

Servants on the Move Francisca E. Oyogoa, 2024-07-08 What explains racial and gender inequality in the workplace Using firm level data from railroad airline and cruise ship companies the central questions addressed in this book are why and how did race gender hierarchies get created maintained legitimized and challenged on trains airplanes and cruise ships The author focuses on employers role in producing inequality among workers by examining management's actions and their own expressed race gender ideology regarding service workers in Pullman Railroad Company 1860s to 1960s the four major U S airlines 1930s to 1970s and U S owned cruise companies 1970s to 2000s In addition to being driven by the profit motive these men made hiring decisions that reflected their own stated beliefs about race gender and nationality In all three instances company executives consciously decided to create a work environment that was hierarchically segregated along race and gender lines Once employers decided to typecast a new job as best suited for one group of people they inscribed workers social identities on the performance of these jobs Notably White men were the only group never deemed naturally suited for serving others
