The Perfect Genre. Drama and Painting in Renaissance Italy Kristin Phillips-Court, 2016-12-05 Proposing an original and important re conceptualization of Italian Renaissance drama Kristin Phillips Court here explores how the intertextuality of major works of Italian dramatic literature is not only poetic but also figurative She argues that not only did the painterly gaze so prevalent in fifteenth and sixteenth century devotional art portraiture and visual allegory inform humanistic theories practices and themes it also led prominent Italian intellectuals to write visually evocative works of dramatic literature whose topical plots and structures provide only a fraction of their cultural significance Through a combination of interpretive literary criticism art historical analysis and cultural and intellectual historiography Phillips Court offers detailed readings of individual plays juxtaposed with specific developments and achievements in the realm of painting Revealing more than historical connections between artists and poets such as Tasso and Giorgione Mantegna and Trissino Michelangelo and Caro or Bruno and Caravaggio the author locates the history of Renaissance art and drama securely within the history of ideas She provides us with a story about the emergence and eventual disintegration of Italian Renaissance drama as a rigorously philosophical and empirical form Considering rhetorical philosophical ethical religious political ideological and aesthetic dimensions of each of the plays she treats Kristin Phillips Court draws our attention to the intermedial conversation between the theater and painting in a culture famously dominated by art Her integrated analysis of visual and dramatic works brings to light how the lines and verses of the text reveal an ongoing dialogue with visual art that was far richer and more intellectually engaged than we might reconstruct from stage diagrams and painted backdrops Shakespeare on Love

Ronald Gray,2011-01-18 Dr Ronald Gray Fellow of Emmanuel College lectured at Cambridge University on German Literature and Philosophy for 33 years and now expands his article Will in the Universe Shakespeare s Sonnets Plato s Symposium Alchemy and Renaissance Neo Platonism published in Shakespeare Survey 59 Cambridge University Press 2006 This developed from his Goethe the Alchemist A Study of Alchemical Symbolism in Goethe s Literary and Scientific Works 1952 greeted on publication as a major contribution to Goethe Studies Diotima s vision of universal love in The Symposium is echoed not only in Castiglione s The Courtier but in alchemy in its symbolical sense these together with Christian ideas combined in Shakespeare s imagination strongly influenced the Sonnets Where possible Shakespeare inserted themes of the Sonnets in his plays The result is a paradoxical combination of mysticism sometimes erotic in the Sonnets with real situations and real lovers in both Sonnets and plays The supreme realisation of the Dark Lady is Cleopatra but the Lady also has mythic dimensions The Art of Conversion Harvey Hames,2021-10-01 This book discusses Ramon Lull ca 1232 1316 the Christian missionary philosopher and mystic his relations with Jewish contemporaries and how he integrated Jewish mystical teachings Kabbalah into his thought system so as to persuade the Jews to convert Issues dealt with include Lull s attitude towards the Jews his knowledge of Kabbalah his theories regarding the Trinity and Incarnation the Art and the impact of his ideas on the Jewish community The book challenges conventional scholarly opinion regarding Christian knowledge of contemporary Jewish thought and questions the assumption that Christians did not know or use Kabbalah before the Renaissance Further it suggests that Lull was well aware of ongoing intellectual and religious controversies within the Jewish community as well as being the first Christian to acknowledge and appreciate Kabbalah as a tool for conversion Peacemaking and Religious Violence

Roger A Johnson,2011-05-26 From its very beginning Christian faith has been engaged with religious violence The first Christians were persecuted by their co religionists and then by imperial Rome Jesus taught them in such circumstances not to retaliate but to be peacemakers to love their enemies and to pray for their persecutors Jesus s response to religious violence of the first century was often ignored but it was never forgotten Even during those centuries when the church herself persecuted Christian heretics Jews and Muslims some Christians still struggled to bear witness to the peace mandate of their Lord In the thirteenth century Thomas Aquinas wrote a theology to help his Dominican brothers persuade Cathar Christians to return to their Catholic faith peacefully Ramon Lull a Christian student of Arabic and the Qur an sought to help his fellow Christians recognize the elements of belief they shared in common with the Muslims in their midst In the fifteenth century Nicholas of Cusa a Church Cardinal and theologian expanded Lull's project to include the newly discovered religions of Asia In the seventeenth century Lord Herbert an English diplomat and lay Christian began to identify the political union of church and government as a causal factor in the religious warfare of post Reformation Christendom One and a half centuries later Thomas Jefferson a lay theologian of considerable political stature won a political struggle in the American colonies to disestablish religion first in his home colony of Virginia and then in the new nation he helped to found All five of these theologians reclaimed the peace mandate of Jesus in their response to the religious violence of their own eras All of which points us to some intriguing Christian responses to religious violence in our own century as recounted in the epilogue

Reading the World Mary Franklin-Brown, 2024-05-31 The thirteenth century saw such a proliferation of new encyclopedic texts that more than one scholar has called it the century of the encyclopedias Various referred to as a speculum thesaurus or imago mundi the term encyclopedia was not commonly applied to such books until the eighteenth century these texts were organized in such a way that a reader could easily locate a collection of authoritative statements on any given topic Because they reproduced rather than simply summarized parts of prior texts these compilations became libraries in miniature In this groundbreaking study Mary Franklin Brown examines writings in Latin Catalan and French that are connected to the encyclopedic movement Vincent of Beauvais's Speculum maius Ramon Llull's Libre de meravelles Arbor scientiae and Arbre de filosofia d'amor and Jean de Meun's continuation of the Roman de la Rose Franklin Brown analyzes the order of knowledge in these challenging texts describing the wide ranging interests the textual practices including commentary compilation and organization and the diverse discourses that they absorb from preexisting classical patristic and medieval writing She also demonstrates how these encyclopedias like libraries became heterotopias of knowledge spaces where many possible ways of knowing are juxtaposed But Franklin Brown's study will not appeal only to historians she argues that a revised understanding of late medievalism makes it possible to discern a close connection between scholasticism and contemporary imaginative literature She shows how encyclopedists employed the same practices of figuration narrative and citation as poets and romanciers while much of the difficulty of the imaginative writing of this period derives from a juxtaposition of heterogeneous discourses inspired by encyclopedias With rich and innovative readings of texts both familiar and neglected Reading the World reveals how the study of encyclopedism can illuminate both the intellectual work and the imaginative writing of the scholastic age

Transformations of Time and Temporality in Medieval and Renaissance Art Simona Cohen, 2014-03-10 Although studies of specific time concepts expressed in Renaissance philosophy and literature have not been lacking few art historians have endeavored to meet the challenge in the visual arts This book presents a multifaceted picture of the dynamic concepts of time and temporality in medieval and Renaissance art adopted in speculative ecclesiastical socio political propagandist moralistic and poetic contexts It has been assumed that time was conceived in a different way by those living in the Renaissance as compared to their medieval predecessors Changing perceptions of time an increasingly secular approach the sense of self determination rooted in the practical use and control of time and the perception of time as a threat to human existence and achievements are demonstrated through artistic media Chapters dealing with time in classical and medieval philosophy and art are followed by studies that focus on innovative aspects of Renaissance iconography

Doctor Illuminatus Ramón Llull, 2020-12-08 For this new anthology Anthony Bonner has chosen central texts from his acclaimed two volume compilation Selected Works of Ramon Llull Princeton 1985 Available for the first time in an affordable format these works serve as an introduction to the life and writings of the Catalan properly Majorcan philosopher mystic and theologian who lived from 1232 to 1316 Founder of a school of Arabic and other languages Llull was also a poet and novelist and one of the creators of literary Catalan This volume contains three prefaces on Llull s life thought and reputation Of Llull s works it offers Book of the Gentile and the Three Wise Men his seminal Christian apology the Ars brevis a summary of his philosophical system The Book of the Lover and the Beloved a celebration of mystical love in the courtly tradition and his wittily scathing Book of the Beasts
