Lumumba Lost:

Lumumba Lost Sallie Pisani, 2003-04-24 Lumumba Lost is the story of Patrice Lumumba's failed attempt to bring the former Belgian Congo into the global market in the immediate post Independence period circa 1960. Lumumba, the Congo's first Prime Minister, was assassinated as a result of his attempt to freely market the Congo's rich mineral wealth. Told in first person by a variety of people involved in Lumumba's power struggle and ultimate demise, Lumumba Lost sheds light on the constraints placed upon African independence leaders by the western corporate world with which they had hoped to trade. While framed as fiction, Lumumba Lost gains its verisimilitude from the authors extensive research into the historical record.

Missing in Action: The 50 Year Search for Ireland's Lost Soldier Ralph Riegel, John O'Mahony, 2010-08-23 The interior of the old Ford armoured car stank of sweat, blood and acrid smoke. Pat's eyes desperately struggled to focus in the gloom of the biting cordite fog. On 15 September 1961 Trooper Patrick Mullins was posted missing after the bloody ambush of an Irish UN convoy in a suburb of Elisabethville in the Katanga province of the Congo. The circumstances of that fateful day have remained shrouded in confusion and contradiction for five decades until now Missing in Action reveals for the first time how an ill equipped and heavily outgunned Irish soldier fought with astonishing courage against heavily armed and ruthless Katangan gendarmes. Through interviews with the survivors and access to military intelligence sources, the truth about Trooper Mullins' heroic last stand and ultimate fate can now be told.

The Second Emancipation Howard W. French, 2025-08-26 Named one of the Most Anticipated Books of 2025 by Foreign Policy, Howard French's The Second Emancipation stands the second half of the last century on its geopolitical head. David Levering Lewis, winner of the Pulitzer Prize, from the acclaimed author of Born in Blackness, comes an extraordinary account of Africa's liberation from colonial oppression, a work that fundamentally reshapes our understanding of modern history. A work of epic dimension that recasts the liberation of twentieth century Africa through the lens of revolutionary leader Kwame Nkrumah, The Second Emancipation is the second work in a trilogy from best selling author Howard W. French about Africa's pivotal role in shaping world history. Underscores Adam Hochschild's contention that French is a modern day Copernicus. The title referring to a brief period beginning in 1957 when dozens of African colonies gained their freedom positions this liberation at the center of a movement of global Blackness with one charismatic leader Kwame Nkrumah 1909 1972 at its head That so few people today know about Nkrumah is an omission that French demonstrates is typical of our deliberate neglect of Africa's enormous role in the birth of the modern world Determined to re-create Nkrumah's life as an epic twentieth century story The Second Emancipation begins with his impoverished unheralded birth in the far western region of Ghana's Gold Coast But blessed with a deep curiosity a young Nkrumah pursued an overseas education in the United States Nowhere is French's consummate style more vivid than in Nkrumah's early years in Depression era America especially in his mesmerizing portrait of a culturally effervescent Harlem that Nkrumah encountered in 1935 before heading to college During his student years in Pennsylvania and later as an activist in London Nkrumah became steeped in a renowned international Black intellectual milieu including Du Bois Garvey Fanon Padmore and C L R James who called him one of the greatest political leaders of our century and formed an ideology that readied him for an extraordinarily swift and peaceful rise to power upon his return to Ghana in 1947 Four years later in a political landslide he engineered while imprisoned Nkrumah stunned Britain by winning the first general election under universal franchise in Africa becoming Ghana's first independent prime minister in 1957 As leader of a sovereign nation Nkrumah wielded his influence to promote the liberation of the entire continent pushing unity as the only pathway to recover from the damages of enslavement and subjugation By the time national military and police forces aided by the CIA overthrew him in 1966 Nkrumah's radical belief in pan African liberation had both galvanized dozens of nascent African states and fired a global agenda of Black power In its dramatic recasting of the American civil rights story and in its tragic depiction of a continent that once exuded all the promise of a newly won freedom The Second Emancipation becomes a generational work that positions Africa at the forefront of modern day history

Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics Lazlo Passemiers, 2019-03-11 Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics argues that as much as the Congo crisis 1960 1965 was a Cold War battleground so too was it a battleground for Southern Africa's decolonisation This book provides a transnational history of African decolonisation apartheid diplomacy and Southern African nationalist movements It answers three central questions First what was the nature of South African involvement in the Congo crisis Second what was the rationale for this involvement Third how did South Africans perceive the crisis Innovatively the book shifts the focus on the Congo crisis away from Cold War intervention and centres it around African decolonisation and regional geopolitics

Relations Kelechi A. Kalu,George Klay Kieh,2013-11-07 United States Africa relations have experienced four major cycles The first cycle was during the Cold War 1960 1990 During this period the U S developed a one sided relationship with various African states in which the latter served as foot soldiers for the U S in its competition with the Soviet Union for global domination Among other things the various client African states provided the U S with access to airfields deep water ports and sites for the establishment of various intelligence gathering facilities In addition the U S used various groups like UNITA led by Jonas Savimbi in Angola to undermine and fight pro Soviet regimes on the continent The second cycle of the relationship covered the period 1991-1998 During this time the U S scaled down its security activities in Africa The major reason was that with the end of the Cold War Africa with few exceptions like Egypt was no longer a major front for the promotion of U S Security interests The third cycle commenced in 1998 and ended in 2001 This period was characterized by the U S search for an approach to frame its security relations with Africa In this vein the U S undertook various military security initiatives The fourth cycle began after the 9/11 terrorist attacks against the American homeland Since then the U S has expanded the scope of its security relations with Africa as reflected in the establishment of various initiatives and programs At the core is the prosecution of the American war on terror Against this backdrop this book examines some of the major dimensions of the U S security relations with Africa including American security interests on the continent the war on terror AFRICOM and military cooperation Using the book's integrative theoretical framework each of the chapters in the volume examines the various factors that shape the issue of focus
