STUMP, 2018 An explanation of Luther's Small Catechism Martin Luther, Joseph Stump, 1935 An Explanation of Luther's Small Catechism Joseph Stump, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from An Explanation of Luther's Small Catechism A Handbook for the Catechetical Class This book is written in the thetical form instead of the traditional form of questions and answers There is nothing in the nature of catechization which would require the use of the interrogative form in such a text book and accordingly the thetical form has for years been employed by numerous writers of text books for the catechetical class in Germany While questions have an important place in catechetical instruction the matter and not the form is the vital thing Catechization is not a method of instruction by means of questions and answers Neither the original meaning of the word nor the history of catechization justifies such a definition See my article A Brief History of Catechization in the Lutheran Church Review January 1902 comp v Zezschwitz System der christl kirchl Katechetik vol i pp 17 seq and vol ii 2 1 pp 3 seq And since Christian truth is not something to be brought forth from the mind of the child by means of questions but something divinely revealed and hence to be communicated to the child the most natural form in which to set it before him in a text book is the thetical Luther's catechism itself is indeed in the form of questions and answers But his catechism is confessional as well as didactic and its words memorized by the catechumen are to become a personal confession of faith The explanations of a text book on the other hand are not to be memorized but are meant to aid the catechumen in grasping the thoughts of the catechism For this purpose the thetical form is better than the interrogative because the explanation is not continually broken by questions and is thus better adapted to give the catechumens a connected idea of the doctrines taught Each chapter of this explanation is followed by a number of questions After the pastor has explained a lesson at one meeting the catechumens should prepare themselves to give an answer to the printed questions in their own words at the next meeting The pastor may of course substitute other questions assign additional ones or eliminate some The proof passages for the teachings set forth are cited in the margin The more important passages particularly those which the catechumens may be expected to memorize are specially indicated by a dagger and are printed in full at the end of the chapter The use of a Scripture lesson is of course optional with the pastor About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find
