Maasai Of Matapato A Study Of Rituals Of Rebellion:

The Maasai of Matapato Paul Spencer, 2004-03-01 When first published in 1988 this classic study was the first to relate the dynamics of the Maasai age organisation to the tensions within the family Together these provide the twin strands of a man's career opposed ritually and reflecting a fundamental ambivalence in Maasai thought The analysis is illustrated with extensive case material from the the Matapato selected for this study as a typical Maasai group , The Politics of Cultural Performance David J. Parkin, Lionel Caplan, Humphrey J. Fisher, 1996 For beginning students and lay readers introduces the basics of psychoanalytic and behaviorist psychology by examining the systems of eight major practitioners and theorists Highlights how the psychodynamic and behavioristic schools complement each other in psychological paradigms experimental perspectives and mental structures The last posthumously published book by Keehn psychology York University Canada Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Encyclopedia of Anthropology H. James Birx, 2006 Focuses on physical social and applied anthropology archaeology linguistics and symbolic communication Topics include hominid evolution primate behaviour genetics ancient civilizations cross cultural studies and social theories

Those Who Play With Fire Henrietta Moore, Todd Sanders, Bwire Kaare, 2020-08-20 Whether initiating girls or healing cattle bringing rain or protesting taxation many in Africa share a vision of a world where the cultural symbolic and cosmic categories of male and female serve through ritual to both reimagine and transform the world Those Who Play With Fire introduces recent gender theory to the analysis of African ethnography exploring the ways in which ideational gender categories permeate African systems of thought and ritual practices Thus the book provides a powerful framework with which to evaluate previous ethnographic material on Africa In addition Those Who Play With Fire presents a broad range of new case studies of hunter gatherers agriculturalists and pastoralists revealing the varied and complex ways in which African ideas and ideals of what it means to be male and female broadly inform and give meaning to a wide range of transformative rituals Aboriginal

Woman Sacred and Profane Phyllis Kaberry, 2005-08-10 First published in 1939 by Routledge this classic ethnography portrays the aboriginal woman as she really is a complex social personality with her own prerogatives duties problems beliefs rituals and point of view This groundbreaking and enduring study was researched in North West Australia between 1935 and 1936 and was written by a woman who truly pioneered the study of gender in anthropology Politics of Religious

Change on the Upper Guinea Coast Ramon Sarro, 2008-12-18 Winner of the 2009 Amaury Talbot Prize for African Anthropology The Politics of Religious Change on the Upper Guinea Coast offers an in depth analysis of an iconoclastic religious movement initiated by a Muslim preacher among coastal Baga farmers in the French colonial period With an ethnographic approach that listens as carefully to those who suffered iconoclastic violence as to those who wanted to get rid of custom this work discusses the extent to which iconoclasm produces a rupture of religious knowledge and identity and analyses its relevance in the making of modern nations and citizens The book will appeal to a wide range of readers

particularly those with an interest in the anthropology of religion iconoclasm the history and anthropology of West Africa or the politics of heritage This book examines the historical complexity of the interface between Islam tradition religions and Christianity in west Africa and how this interface links with dramatic political changes It gives a detailed ethnographic approach through which such complex history is unveiled and analysed It presents a dialogue between the field findings a long tradition of anthropology and the most recent anthropological debates Obafemi Awolowo and the Making of Remo Insa Nolte,2019-08-06 Insa Nolte examines the evolution of a distinctive Yoruba community Remo and the central role of the Remo born Nationalist and Yoruba leader Obafemi Awolowo 1909 1987 Beginning in the nineteenth century public participation played an important role in challenging or confirming local hierarchies in Remo and this historical dynamic had a significant impact on Awolowo s vision both for Yoruba and for Nigerian politics When he ascended to the national stage in the 1950s Awolowo seized the opportunity to reshape Remo s political identity proving that the leader was both a product and a producer of Remo politics Based on a subtle analysis of local level politics this book argues that traditional and modern structures of participation are integral in Yoruba politics and in the African postcolonial state At the same time the volume s focus on Awolowo constitutes an important contribution to the debate over one of Nigeria s most influential politicians

The Pastoral Continuum Paul Spencer,1998-01-29 Paul Spencer presents the definitive study of the ways of life of the cattle herding peoples of East Africa drawing on many years of research This region has offered a prime example of a traditional culture resisting the inevitability of change it provides the best known and most extensive instance both of cattle pastoralist society and of social organization based primarily on age Pastoral peoples were once dominant in the East African interior but development of the market economy has progressively polarized the region and forced them into the most marginal drought ridden areas in this ecological trap they have become a peripheral underclass The Pastoral Continuum examines the richness and resilience of their cultures and illuminates the role of indigenous practices and institutions in adaptation and survival The pastoralists systems of age organization in particular are notable for their resilience it is demonstrated that these are bound up with problems of growth and succession in family enterprises and that marriage is a critical link in the web of alliance that governs the problematic relations between old and young Spencer s exploration of the development of the pastoralist phenomenon yields a unique view of its place in the modern world and its prospects for the future This landmark work by a leading authority will be of lasting value to any reader interested in traditional social systems of this kind Animism and the Question of Life Istvan Praet,2013-08-15 The central purpose of this book is to help change the terms of the debate on animism a classic theme in anthropology It combines some of the finest ethnographic material currently available including firsthand research on the Chachi of Ecuador with an unusually broad geographic scope the Americas Asia and Africa Edward B Tylor originally defined animism as the first phase in the development of religion The heyday of cultural evolutionism may be over but his basic conception is commonly assumed to remain valid in at least one respect there is still a broad consensus that everything is alive within animism or at least that more things are alive than a modern scientific observer would allow for e g clouds rivers mountains It is considered self evident that animism is based on a kind of exaggeration its adherents are presumed to impute life to this that and the other in a remarkably generous manner Against the prevailing consensus this book argues that if animism has one outstanding feature it is its peculiar restrictiveness Animistic notions of life are astonishingly uniform across the globe insofar as they are restricted rather than exaggerated In the modern Western cosmology life overlaps with the animate Within animism however life is always conditional and therefore tends to be limited to one s kin one s pets and perhaps the plants in one s garden Thus it emerges that our modern biological concept of life is stranger than generally thought
