Democracy and Rule of Law in the European Union Flora A.N.J. Goudappel, Ernst M.H. Hirsch Ballin, 2015-12-30 The present collection of essays offers the reader a broad range of original perspectives on democracy and the rule of law in the European Union approaching the existing policy area from new points of view. Leading experts from different countries and backgrounds focus on how democracy and the rule of law are related to topics like security, pension rights, judicial cooperation and human rights protection. Their expert views are based on a combination of theory and knowledge acquired in their practice as academics or practitioners in the field of European integration. The issue of the rule of law and democracy is close to the heart of Professor Jaap de Zwaan, a true European building bridges between countries and peoples. He has written extensively on the subject of European integration. Therefore, this collection of expert views is not only an original and valuable contribution to the literature and discussion on the development and enlargement of the European Union but at the same time it is a tribute to Jaap de Zwaan whose academic and diplomatic career can be characterized as always serving an ever closer Union.

Flora Goudappel is Jean Monnet Professor of EU Trade Law in the Overseas Territories at the Erasmus University Rotterdam and a consultant on European Union law. Ernst Hirsch Ballin is Professor of Dutch and European Constitutional Law at Tilburg University and Professor of Human Rights Law at the University of Amsterdam.

The Legitimacy of EU Criminal Law Irene Wiecek, 2020-07-09. This book traces the history of the EU competence, EU policy discourse and EU legislation in the field of criminalisation from Maastricht until the present day. It asks: Why EU Criminal Law? Looking at what rationales the Treaty, policy document and legislation put forth when deciding whether a certain behaviour should be a criminal offence. To interpret the EU approach to criminalisation it relies on both modern and post-modern theoretical frameworks on the legitimacy of criminal law, read jointly with the theories on the functions of EU harmonisation of national law. The book demonstrates that while EU constitutional law leans towards an effectiveness-based enforcement-driven understanding of criminal law, the EU has in fact in more than one instance adopted symbolic EU criminal law, i.e. criminal law aimed at highlighting what values are important to the EU but which is not fit to actually deter individuals from harming such values. The book then questions whether this approach is consistent or in contradiction with the values based constitutional identity the EU has set for itself Constitutional Law of the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy Graham Butler, 2019-10-03 The Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP of the European Union is a highly exceptional component of the EU legal order This constitutionalised foreign policy regime with legal diplomatic and political DNA woven throughout its fabric is a distinct sub system of law on the outermost sphere of European supranationalism When contrasted against other Union policies it is immediately clear that EU foreign policy has a special decision making mechanism making it highly exceptional In the now depillarised framework of the EU treaties issues of institutional division arise from the legacy of the former pillar system This is due to the reality that of prime concern in EU external relations is the question of who decides By engaging a number of legal themes that cut across foreign affairs exceptionalism executive prerogatives parliamentary accountability judicial review and the constitutionalisation of European integration the book lays bare how EU foreign affairs have become highly legalised leading to ever greater coherence in how Europe exerts itself on the global stage In this first monograph dedicated exclusively to the law of the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy in modern times the author argues that the legal framework for EU foreign affairs must adapt in a changing world so as to ensure the EU treaties can cater for a more assertive Europe in the wider world Cited in Opinion of Advocate General Evgeni Tanchev Case C 730 18 P SC v Eulex Kosovo ECLI EU C 2020 176 Court of Justice of the European Union First Chamber 5 March 2020 Opinion of Advocate General Gerard Hogan Case C 134 19 P Bank Refah Kargaran v Council of the European Union ECLI EU C 2020 396 Court of Justice of the European Union Grand Chamber 28 May 2020 Opinion of Advocate General Evgeni Tanchev Case C 283 20 CO ME GC and 42 Others v MJ Head of Mission European Commission European External Action Service EEAS Council of the European Union Eulex Kosovo ECLI EU C 2021 781 Court of Justice of the European Union Fifth Chamber 30 September 2021 and Opinion of Advocate General Tamara Capeta in Joined Cases C 29 22 P and C 44 22 P KS KD v Council of the European Union European Commission and European External Action Service EEAS and European Commission v KS KD Council of the European Union and European External Action Service EEAS ECLI EU C 2023 901 Court of Justice of the European Union Grand Chamber 23 November 2023
