Oscar Micheaux and Ralph Cooper the 1970s blaxploitation cycle and the 1990s hood movie come under his microscope as well Ultimately Munby concludes that this tradition has been a misunderstood aspect of African American civic life and that rather than undermining black culture it forms a rich and enduring response to being outcast in America The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history Law & Order Kevin Courrier, Susan Green, 1999-11-20 Whether you tune in each week to see veteran Detective Lennie Briscoe analyze clues with wild card partner Ed Green in the first half of the show or to see Assistant District Attorney Jack McCoy invoke justice in the courtroom in the second half you cannot help but get involved with the most human characters on television With these powerful characters and socially relevant stories ripped from today's headlines it is difficult to tell whether you are watching the evening news or one of the most intense dramas ever seen on television Law Order The Unofficial Companion was written with the cooperation of the show's creator and executive producer Dick Wolf and features interviews with the stars producers and writers It is the first ever guide to this popular Emmy award winning police drama You'll get the inside scoop on the past and current stars of the show including Paul Sorvino Jerry Orbach Jesse L Martin Christopher Noth S Epatha Merkerson Sam Waterston Carey Lowell Angie Harmon and Michael Moriarty and find out who was fired who left willingly and who remains the show's continued problems with censorship issues and advertiser fallout the behind the scenes anecdotes about cast regulars including the fights both verbal and physical that have peppered the production how Wolf was forced to increase the estrogen and decrease the testosterone on the show the detailed history behind the creation and development of the show and season by season critiques of each episode through the entire 1999 season Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema Infantry Journal ,1923 Official Register of the National Guard of Georgia for ...
