Manchester Memories:

Manchester Memories Edith Jones Hillstrom,1971 Manchester Mary Hard Bort,2005 Manchester Memories, Manchester, N.H. Frank Oakman Spinney,1949 British Sport: Local histories Richard William Cox,2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Changing Face of Manchester Manchester Evening News Staff,2003 The Manchester Evening News has teamed up with the city s Central Library to produce this volume which contains a selection of photographs chronicling the ever changing face of life in and around Manchester Manchester Memories True North Holdings,2002-07-01

Transactions ... Lancashire and Cheshire Antiquarian Society,1895 Directory of Museums, Galleries and Buildings of Historic Interest in the UK Keith W. Reynard,2004-03-01 This unique and important directory incorporates some 3 200 entries It covers all types and sizes of museums galleries of paintings sculpture and photography and buildings and sites of particular historic interest It also provides an extensive index listing over 3 200 subjects The directory covers national collections and major buildings but also the more unusual less well known and local exhibits and sites The Directory of Museums Galleries and Buildings of Historic Interest in the United Kingdom is an indispensable reference source for any library an ideal companion for researcher and enthusiast alike and an essential purchase for anyone with an interest in the cultural and historical collections of the UK Features include Alphabetically listed entries which are also indexed by subject for ease of reference Entries include the name and address of the organization telephone and fax numbers email and internet addresses a point of contact times of opening and facilities for visitors A breakdown of the collections held by each organization giving a broad overview of the main collection as a whole Details of special collections are provided and include

Memories George Mould,1972-01-01 Local Glories Ann Satterthwaite,2016-02-23 To most people the term opera house conjures up images of mink coated dowagers accompanied by tuxedo clad men in the gilded interiors of opulent buildings like the Met in New York or La Scala in Milan However the opera house in the United States has a far more varied and far more interesting history than that stereotype implies In Local Glories Ann Satterthwaite explores the creative social and communal roles of the thousands of opera houses that flourished in small towns across the country By 1900 opera houses were everywhere on second floors over hardware stores in grand independent buildings in the back rooms of New England town halls and even in the bowels of a Mississippi department store With travel made easier by the newly expanded rail lines Sarah Bernhardt Mark Twain and John Philip Sousa entertained thousands of townspeople as did countless actors theater and opera companies innumerable minor league magicians circuses and lecturers and even 500 troupes that performed nothing but Uncle Tom s Cabin Often the town s only large space for public assembly the local opera house served as a place for local activities such as school graduations recitations sports town meetings elections political rallies and even social dances and roller skating parties Considered local landmarks often in distinctive architect designed buildings they aroused considerable pride and reinforced town identity By considering states with distinctly different histories principally Maine Nebraska Vermont New York and Colorado Satterthwaite describes the diversity of opera houses programs audiences buildings promoters and supporters and their hopes dreams and ambitions In the twentieth century radio and movies and later television and changing tastes made these opera houses seem obsolete Some were demolished while others languished for decades until stalwart revivers discovered them again in the 1970s The resuscitation of these opera houses today an example of historic preservation and creative reuse reflects the timeless quest for cultural inspiration and for local engagement to counter the anonymity of the larger world These local glories are where art and community meet forging connections and making communities today just as they did in the nineteenth century The Changing Face of

Manchester ,2003 My Lancashire Childhood Catherine Rothwell,2007-06-01 Catherine Rothwell grew up in Lancashire in the 1920s and 30s and this charming account of her childhood is a valuable insight into another world Here we read about daily life in the county family schooldays cinemas holidays on the coast and in the Lake District local characters markets and shops and Christmas time and relive memories of the long forgotten streets landscapes and surroundings of days gone by These stories illustrated with a variety of beautiful photographs many taken by Catherine s father who was a professional photographer will evoke nostalgic memories of Lancashire before the Second World War A heartwarming and enchanting read My Lancashire Childhood will appeal to anyone who lives in the county The Cambridge Urban History of Britain
