Agriculture and Life Arthur Dayton Cromwell, 1915 Undaunted Tanya Biank, 2014-02-04 As she did so provocatively with military spouses in Army Wives Tanya Biank gives us the inside story of women in today's military their professional and personal challenges from the combat zone to the home front Since 9 11 more than 240 000 women have fought in Iraq and Afghanistan more than 140 have died there and they currently make up fourteen percent of the total active duty forces Despite advances today's servicewomen are constantly pressed to prove themselves to overcome challenges men never face and to put the military mission ahead of all other aspects of their lives particularly marriage and motherhood In this groundbreaking insider's look at the women defending our nation Tanya Biank brings to light the real issues of femininity belonging to an old boys club veiled discrimination dating marriage problems separation from children questions about life goals career trajectories and self worth that servicewomen are facing by focusing on four individual stories Brigadier General Angela Salinas the Marine Corps first Hispanic female general faces the challenge of commanding an all male institution Second Lieutenant Bergan Flanagan finds herself on the frontlines in Afghanistan serving in the same military police company as her husband As a marine drill instructor Sergeant Amy Stokley demands the very best from the recruits at Parris Island And Major Candice O'Brien deals with deployment to Afghanistan with two young children and a strained marriage back home Undaunted is the story of these courageous trailblazers their struggles sacrifices and triumphs in the name of serving the country they love Flesh-and-Blood Jesus, Second Edition L. Daniel Russ, 2013-02-28

Christians are prone to so focus on the realities of Jesus divinity that we minimize or ignore the realities of his humanity That he called himself the Son of Man more than any other title emphasizes that Jesus lived humanly in our fallen world facing our temptations and living out the tensions of being human in the flow of life He was just like us human in a sinful world yet he did not sin So what can we learn from Jesus glorious life about the meaning of our own humanity about the tensions of being human in a sinful world and the difference between being a sinner and being a finite flesh and blood human being With this book as a helpful and trustworthy guide you will begin to see how we can learn from Jesus how to live gracefully in our bodies even our wounded and dying bodies live with integrity as finite human beings who are created to enjoy limits love our family friends neighbors strangers and enemies enjoy being alone without being lonely enjoy the good things of life wear our scars with hope and dignity learn to die As Dr Russ shows it is by truly encountering understanding and learning from Jesus humanity that we can become more fully and truly human Michigan Christian Advocate, 1893 First Person Political Grant Reeher, 2006-01-30 In First Person Political Grant Reeher combats the public's alienation from and distrust of politicians by putting a personal face on everyday political life Through moving personal interviews Reeher allows legislators to tell their own stories about how and why they came to politics the experience of serving in their state legislature their decisions to stay or leave and the many trials they face in the name of public service Reeher contends that these politicians do have the public good in mind and often suffer great personal losses for their chance to represent the people and fight for what they think is right His research also shows that those who choose to run for office often come from a background of deep community involvement Reeher argues against public cynicism about our elected officials and his profiles stir not only our praise and respect for these legislators but also a greater belief in the democratic process itself The excerpts from his interviews provide a rarely afforded intimate look at these politicians What emerges from these stories is a humane and believable portrait of public servants acting on behalf of the public good a portrait that should provide some comfort perhaps even inspiration for citizens concerned about the state of American democracy Daily Graphic Elvis D.
