professionalized field This book argues that the concept of a field of cultural production is essential to accounting for the ways in which writers and editors respond to political and economic forces It traces the formation of dominant concepts of literature competing literary trends and how these ideas have met political and market challenges Contemporary Taiwanese literature has often been neglected and misrepresented by literary historians both inside and outside of Taiwan Chang provides a comprehensive and fluent history of late twentieth century Taiwanese literature by placing this vibrant tradition within the contexts of a modernizing local economy a globalizing world economy and a postcolonial and post Cold War world order

Politics and Cultural Nativism in 1970s Taiwan A-chin Hsiau, 2021-11-09 In the aftermath of 1949 Taiwan s elites saw themselves as embodying China in exile both politically and culturally The island officially known as the Republic of China was a temporary home to await the reconquest of the mainland Taiwan not the People s Republic represented China internationally until the early 1970s Yet in recent decades Taiwan has increasingly come to see itself as a modern nation state A chin Hsiau traces the origins of Taiwanese national identity to the 1970s when a surge of domestic dissent and youth activism transformed society politics and culture in ways that continue to be felt After major diplomatic setbacks at the beginning of the 1970s posed a serious challenge to Kuomintang authoritarian rule a younger generation without firsthand experience of life on the mainland began openly challenging the status quo Hsiau examines how student activists writers and dissident researchers of Taiwanese anticolonial movements despite accepting Chinese nationalist narratives began to foreground Taiwan s political and social past and present Their activism creative work and historical explorations played pivotal roles in bringing to light and reshaping indigenous and national identities In so doing Hsiau contends they laid the basis for Taiwanese nationalism and the eventual democratization of Taiwan Offering bracing new perspectives on nationalism democratization and identity in Taiwan this book has significant implications spanning sociology history political science and East Asian studies

Literature, Modernity, and the Practice of Resistance Margaret Hillenbrand, 2007-03-31 This book is a cross cultural interdisciplinary study which compares responses to modernity in the literary cultures of Japan and Taiwan 1960 1990 Moving beyond the East West framework that has traditionally dominated comparative enquiry the volume sets out to explore contemporary East Asian literature on its own terms As such it belongs to the newly emerging area of inter Asian cultural studies but is the first full length monograph to explore this field through the prism of literature The book combines close readings of paradigmatic texts with in depth analysis of the historical social and ideological contexts in which these works are situated and explores the form and function of literary practice within the miracle societies of industrialized East Asia

Urban Modernities in Colonial Korea and Taiwan Jina E. Kim, 2019-05-15 Urban Modernities reconsiders Japanese colonialism in Korea and Taiwan through a relational study of modernist literature and urban aesthetics from the late colonial period By charting intra Asian and transregional circulations of writers ideas and texts it reevaluates the dominant narrative in current scholarship that presents Korea and Taiwan as having vastly different responses to and experiences of Japanese colonialism By comparing representations of various colonial spaces ranging from the nation the streets department stores and print spaces to underscore the shared experiences of the quotidian and the poetic Jina E Kim shows how the culture of urban modernity enlivened networks of connections between the colonies and destabilized the metropole colony relationship thus also contributing to the broader formation of global modernism The Columbia Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Kirk A. Denton, 2016-04-05 The Columbia Companion to Modern Chinese Literature features more than fifty short essays on specific writers and literary trends from the Qing period 1895 1911 to the present The volume opens with thematic essays on the politics and ethics of writing literary history the formation of the canon the relationship between language and form the role of literary institutions and communities the effects of censorship the representation of the Chinese diaspora the rise and meaning of Sinophone literature and the role of different media in the development of literature Subsequent essays focus on authors their works and the schools with which they were aligned featuring key names titles and terms in English and in Chinese characters Woven throughout are pieces on late Qing fiction popular entertainment fiction martial arts fiction experimental theater post Mao avant garde poetry post martial law fiction from Taiwan contemporary genre fiction from China and recent Internet literature The volume includes essays on such authors as Liang Qichao Lu Xun Shen Congwen Eileen Chang Jin Yong Mo Yan Wang Anyi Gao Xingjian and Yan Lianke Both a teaching tool and a go to research companion this volume is a one of a kind resource for mastering modern literature in the Chinese speaking world Modern Chinese Literary and Cultural Studies in the Age of Theory Rey Chow, 2001-01-04 An attempt to describe the new boundaries of the field of Chinese studies Li Ang's Visionary Challenges to Gender, Sex, and Politics Yenna Wu, 2013-12-18 Li Ang 1952 is a famous and prolific feminist writer from Taiwan who challenges and subverts sociocultural traditions through her daring explorations of sex violence women's bodies and desire and national politics As a taboo breaking writer and social critic she uses fiction to expose injustice and represent human nature Her political engagement further affords her a visionary perspective for interrogating the problematic intersection of gender and politics The ambivalence in her fictional representations invites controversies and debates Her works have thus helped raise awareness of the problems open up discussions and bring about social and intellectual changes Some of her works have been translated into such foreign languages as English French German and Japanese In her career spanning over forty years she has won numerous literary awards Li Ang's Visionary Challenges to Gender Sex and Politics is the first collection of critical essays in English on Li Ang and some of her most celebrated works Contributing historians examine her vital roles in the Taiwanese women's movement and political arenas as well as the social influence of her publications on extramarital affairs Contributing literary scholars investigate the feminist controversy over her 1983 award winning novel Shafu Killing the Husband translated as The Butcher's Wife offer alternative interpretative strategies such as looking into figurations of biopower and relationship dynamics dissect the subtle political significance in her magnificent novel Miyuan The labyrinthine

Queer Politics and Sexual Modernity in Taiwan Hans Tao-Ming Huang,2011-08-01 This book analyses the critical reception of Pai Hsien yung sCrystal Boys one of Taiwan s first recognized gay novels and one which has played an important role in redefining sexual modernity and linking this to ongoing cultural dialogues on state building It examines the deployment of sexuality over the past five decades in Taiwan by paying particular attention to male homosexuality and prostitution In addition to literary and film material the study engages a number of relevant legal cases and media reports Through Hans Huang s primary research and historical investigations the book not only illuminates the construction of gendered sexual identities in Taiwanese culture but also in a reflexive fashion critiques the culture that produces them Hans Tao Ming Huangis assistant professor in the English Department National Central University Taiwan

Contemporary Taiwanese Cultural Nationalism A-Chin Hsiau,2003-09-02 Drawing on a wide range of Chinese historical and contemporary texts Contemporary Taiwanese Cultural Nationalism addresses diverse subjects including nationalist literature language ideology the crafting of a national history the impact of Japanese colonialism and the increasingly strained relationship between China and Taiwan This book is essential reading for all scholars of the history culture and politics of Taiwan

A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang,2017-05-22 Literature from the Chinese perspective makes manifest the cosmic patterns that shape and complete the world a process of worlding that is much more than mere representation In that spirit A New Literary History of Modern China looks beyond state sanctioned works and official narratives to reveal China as it has seldom been seen before through a rich spectrum of writings covering Chinese literature from the late seventeenth century to the present Featuring over 140 Chinese and non Chinese contributors from throughout the world this landmark volume explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres pop song lyrics and presidential speeches political treatises and prison house jottings to name just a few Major figures such as Lu Xun Shen Congwen Eileen Chang and Mo Yan appear in a new light while lesser known works illuminate turning points in recent history with unexpected clarity and force Many essays emphasize Chinese authors influence on foreign writers as well as China s receptivity to outside literary influences Contemporary works that engage with ethnic minorities and environmental issues take their place in the critical discussion alongside writers who embraced Chinese traditions and others who resisted Writers assessments of the popularity of translated foreign language classics and avant garde subjects refute the notion of

China as an insular and inward looking culture A vibrant collection of contrasting voices and points of view A New Literary History of Modern China is essential reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of China s literary and cultural legacy

China Review 1997 Maurice Brosseau,Hsin-chi Kuan,Y. Y. Kueh,1997 China Review has been chosen by the American Public Libraries Association for inclusion in the list of books recommended to its members for acquisition China Review 1997 the seventh volume of the series is an expert survey of China s major sectors of interest and critically summarizes the development of the previous year in core chapters covering politics the economy and social change The volume contains in depth studies of political social and economic issues such as the death of leader Deng Xiaoping the anticipated fifteenth Party Congress cross straits relations the problem of state owned enterprises and foreign economic relations all of which are of major concern to those who are interested in the development of the People s Republic Additional studies describe seldom discussed aspects of Chinese society such as cultural changes and legal disputes

The Lure of the Modern Shumei Shi,2001-04-20 Quite apart from her contributions as a literary critic Shu mei Shih is able to historicize literary developments of the period most persuasively Her analysis of Shanghai the city and the literary movement it spawned is crafted with great sensitivity to both history and literature In many ways it is the most inclusive historical study of modern Chinese literature in its formative period Prasenjit Duara author of Rescuing History from the Nation Tracing the spectral production of Chinese identity as it is disseminated globally Shih boldly moves away from using place ethnicity and the body race to anchor Chinese identity to argue that the visual film and the verbal language and linguistics are the most salient ones in the modern and contemporary historical formation She succeeds brilliantly David Palumbo Liu author of Asian American Historical Crossings of a Racial Frontier This is the most thoroughly researched study of Chinese modernism published to date The author s theoretical interventions greatly enrich our understanding of colonial modernity and the stakes of comparison in cross cultural studies The book is a major contribution to modern Chinese literary studies and comparative literature Lydia Liu editor of Tokens of Exchange

Angelwings ,2003-01-31 Lesbian and gay or queer fiction known in Mandarin as tongzhi wenxue constitutes a major contribution to Taiwanese literature as evidenced by the remarkable number of prestigious literary awards won by many of the authors of the short stories presented here Indeed the meteoric rise of this new genre was a defining feature of Taiwan s literary scene in the 1990s Queer fiction was also instrumental in forming self identifying subcultural gay readerships thus serving a significant political function But most strikingly this fiction has been immensely popular with general readers in Taiwan Hong Kong and Singapore as well as in diasporic Chinese communities worldwide The startlingly fresh brave voices that speak through these stories attest to the powerful social ferment of the past ten years in Taiwan which have witnessed a revolution in discourses on sex and sexuality in the public sphere Contributors Chu T ien Wen Qiu Miaojin Chu T ien Hsin Hsu Yoshen Lin Yuyi Lin Chun Ying Chen Xue Hong Ling Chi Tawei Wu Jiwen

Power Misses II David E. James,2020-10-27 Like David James earlier collection of essays

Power Misses Essays Across Un Popular Culture 1996 the present volume Power Misses II Cinema Asian and Modern is concerned with popular cultural activity that propose alternatives and opposition to capitalist media Now with a wider frame of reference it moves globally from west to east beginning with films made during the Korean Democracy Movement and then turning to socialist realism in China and Taiwan and to Asian American film and poetry in Los Angeles Several other avant garde film movements in L A created communities resistant to the culture industries centered there as did elements in the classic New York avant garde here instanced in the work of Ken Jacobs and Andy Warhol The final chapter concerns little known films about communal agriculture in the Nottinghamshire village of Laxton the only one where the medieval open field system never suffered enclosure This survival of the commons anticipated resistance to the extreme and catastrophic forms of privatization monetization and theft of the public commonweal in the advanced form of capitalism we know as neoliberalism

The Emerging Lesbian Tze-Lan D. Sang, 2003-01-15 In early twentieth century China age old traditions of homosocial and homoerotic relationships between women suddenly became an issue of widespread public concern Discussed formerly in terms of friendship and sisterhood these relationships came to be associated with feminism on the one hand and psychobiological perversion on the other a radical shift whose origins have long been unclear In this first ever book length study of Chinese lesbians Tze lan D Sang convincingly ties the debate over female same sex love in China to the emergence of Chinese modernity As women s participation in social economic and political affairs grew Sang argues so too did the societal significance of their romantic and sexual relations Focusing especially on literature by or about women preferring women Sang traces the history of female same sex relations in China from the late imperial period 1600 1911 through the Republican era 1912 1949 She ends by examining the reemergence of public debate on lesbians in China after Mao and in Taiwan after martial law including the important roles played by globalization and identity politics

Contested Modernities in Chinese Literature C. Laughlin, 2005-06-03 This book is a significant gathering of ideas on the subject of modern Chinese literature and culture of the past several years The essays represent a wide spectrum of new approaches and new areas of subject matter that are changing the landscape of knowledge of modern and contemporary Chinese culture women s literature theatre performance film graphic arts popular literature as well as literature of the Chinese diaspora These phenomena and the approaches to them manifest interconnected trajectories for new scholarship in the field the rewriting of literary history the emergence of visual culture and the quotidian apocalypse the displacement of revolutionary romanticism and realism as central paradigms for cultural expression by the perspective of private everyday experience
