Moscow Mansions Poems:

Moscow Mansions Barbara Guest, 1973 The Collected Poems of Barbara Guest Barbara Guest, 2013-09-01 Winner of the SFSU Poetry Center Book Award 2010 One of the most notable members of the New York School and its best known woman Barbara Guest began writing poetry in the 1950s in company that included John Ashbery Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler And from the beginning her practice placed her at the vanguard of American writing Guest's poetry saturated in the visual arts extended the formal experiments of modernism and played the abstract qualities of language against its sensuousness and materiality Now for the first time all of her published poems have been brought together in one volume offering readers and scholars unprecedented access to Guest's remarkable visionary work This Collected Poems moves from her early New York School years through her more abstract later work including some final poems never before published Switching effortlessly from the real to the dreamlike the observed to the imagined this is poetry both gentle and piercing seemingly simple but truly and beautifully dislocating The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America's greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years Poets of Modern Russia Peter France, 1982 A serious and detailed study of modern Russian poetry aimed at readers with little or no Russian Woman Poet, 1980 Some few of these poets e.g. Olga Broumas are lesbians P Thorslev The Rough Guide to Moscow Dan Richardson, 2009-03-02 The Rough Guide to Moscow is the definitive guide to one of Europe's most fascinating and rewarding cities The full colour

Fisher,2006-01-24 This interdisciplinary study participates in the ongoing critical conversation about postwar American poetry and visual culture while advancing that field into the arena of the museum Turning to contemporary poems about the visual arts that foreground and interrogate a museum setting the book demonstrates the particular importance of the museum as a cultural site that is both inspiration and provocation for poets The study uniquely bridges the dual canon in contemporary poetry and calls the lyric avant garde distinction into question by analyzing museum sponsored anthologies as well as poems by John Ashbery Richard Howard Kenneth Koch Kathleen Fraser Cole Swensen Anne Carson and others Through these case studies of poets with diverse affiliations the author shows that the boom in ekphrasis in the past 20 years is not only an aesthetic but a critical phenomenon a way that poets have come to terms with the critical dilemmas of our moment Highlighting the importance of poets peripheral vision awareness of the institutional conditions that frame encounters with art the author contend that a museum visit becomes a forum for questioning oppositions that have preoccupied literary criticism for the past 50 years homage and innovation modernism and postmodernism subjectivity and collectivity The study shows that ekphrasis becomes a strategy for negotiating these impasses a mode of political inquiry a meditation on canonization a venue for comic appraisal of institutionalization and a means of site specific feminist revision in a vital synthesis of critique perspicacity and pleasure Catalog of Copyright Entries.
