Myths and Reality of External Constraints on Development James Riedel, 1987 The System of Protection and Industrial Development in Zimbabwe Lindani B. Ndlovu, 2018-12-20 First published in 1994 this volume seeks to evaluate the impact of trade restrictions and other forms of government intervention on the development of manufacturing industries in Zimbabwe in the 1980s The study focuses on the period after independence in Zimbabwe up to 1989 The emphasis of the study is on a the extent and levels of effective protection afforded the industries by the system and b the efficiency of all industries created by the system of protection This research seeks to assess the extent of protection created by managed trade and other forms of government intervention and the resultant efficiency of manufacturing sector industries using single period effective rate of protection ERP and domestic resource cost DRC estimates The aim is to show the structure of incentives and efficiency implications of intervention for sample firms and the whole manufacturing sector

Regional Developmentalism through Law Jonathan Bashi Rudahindwa, 2018-05-20 Offering a study of regionalism in Africa and investigating the ways in which law can be used to address the issues raised by regional processes on the continent this book examines the African Economic Community considering that it has been entrusted to coordinate and to harmonize policies between various Regional Economic Communities RECs across the continent thereby influencing the continent's approach towards regional integration It seeks to identify how law can be used to strengthen the African RECs while ensuring that they achieve their goal of promoting regional development across the continent Drawing upon economic and political theories and using a critical doctrinal analysis of legal texts and norms the book uncovers the legal and economic underpinnings of the model of regional integration followed by the regional schemes operating under the banner of the AEC aiming to contribute to the search for effective methods to ensure the success of these various initiatives Proposing the concept of Regional Developmentalism Through Law as the most suitable conceptual framework to support the effective establishment of an African Economic Community this book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers interested in the correlation between law regional integration and development in Africa The Prospects for

Industrialisation in the New South Africa Robert Trevor Bell, 1990 Economics Today Donald A. Hay, 2004 Economics has assumed a dominant role in shaping our modern world In this book Donald Hay develops a critique of economics today in the light of a Christian understanding of truth The author's purpose is to equip the reader with arguments and principles with which to confront new economic problems as well as to analyse our present situation Case studies take the arguments and apply them to particular areas of economic analysis Amongst influential cases illuminated by Donald Hay's study are the free market of capitalism and the planned economy of socialism He analyses macro economic policy in the advanced industrial economies the vexed question of relations between rich and poor nations and the consequences of economic growth This book gives an exposition of economics as it is practised in the West It also provides an insight into the underlying beliefs of economists when they pronounce on public policy issues which affect all of our lives Donald Hay is a Fellow and Tutor in Economics at Jesus College Oxford and a Reader in the Church of England A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 Economics and Development Barbara Ingham,1995 Economics and Development provides a clear and comprehensive introduction to development economics The text presents an account anchored in the complex reality of the global economy and the economic politivla and cultural diversity of developing countries The Impact of Regionalisation Schemes on the Export and Economic Performances of Developing Countries Francis A.
