Washima Che Dan,Jason Sanjeev Ganesan,Noritah Omar,2012-11-15 The fifteen chapters in this volume explore both new and tested theoretical perspectives on literature and culture at large this multiplicity of discourses is a reflection of the implicit discontent in conforming to the New World Order and a contestation against hierarchical relationships between countries which inform the social cultural and political climates of weaker nations With the political and economic hegemony of stronger nations weaker nations run the risk of being dominated or at the very least having their own national identity and sovereignty steeped in ambivalence in the face of a globalised culture This volume hopes to bring together critical views in relation to the construction of cultural studies in the Western framework the application of literary theory in the readings of vernacular literature contestation of the mainstream scientific methodology of cultural evaluation the role of English literature in Asian cultures the application of postcolonial theory in literature literary ethics in relation to Islamic literature as well as the Islamic and Western conceptions of democracy More than half of the articles in this collection centre on Islam as a guiding principle or as a context through which critical perspectives are made on literature and culture in today s globalised world order This inadvertent foregrounding of Islam reflects a continuing dialogue on and with Islam and its significant impact on existing academic discourses founded upon Western style scholarship Money Émile

Zola,2014-03-13 The irresistible power of money a lever that can lift the world Love and money are the only things Aristide Rougon known as Saccard is a failed property speculator determined to make his way once more in Paris Unscrupulous seductive and with unbounded ambition he schemes and manipulates his way to power Financial undertakings in the Middle East lead to the establishment of a powerful new bank and speculation on the stock market Saccard meanwhile conducts his love life as energetically as he does his business and his empire is seemingly unstoppable Saccard last encountered in The Kill La Cur e in Zola s Rougon Macquart series is a complex figure whose story intricately intertwines the worlds of politics finance and the press The repercussions of his dealings on all levels of society resonate disturbingly with the financial scandals of more recent times This is the first new translation for more than a hundred years and the first unabridged translation in English The edition includes a wide ranging introduction and useful historical notes ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date highlighting their contributions to the genre The World Republic of Letters Pascale Casanova, 2004 The world of letters has always seemed a matter more of metaphor than of global reality In this book Pascale Casanova shows us the state of world literature behind the stylistic refinements a world of letters relatively independent from economic and political realms and in which language systems aesthetic orders and genres struggle for dominance Rejecting facile talk of globalization with its suggestion of a happy literary melting pot Casanova exposes an emerging regime of inequality in the world of letters where minor languages and literatures are subject to the invisible but implacable violence of their dominant counterparts Inspired by the writings of Fernand Braudel and Pierre Bourdieu this ambitious book develops the first systematic model for understanding the production circulation and valuing of literature worldwide Casanova proposes a baseline from which we might measure the newness and modernity of the world of letters the literary equivalent of the meridian at Greenwich She argues for the importance of literary capital and its role in giving value and legitimacy to nations in their incessant struggle for international power Within her overarching theory Casanova locates three main periods in the genesis of world literature Latin French and German and closely examines three towering figures in the world republic of letters Kafka Joyce and Faulkner Her work provides a rich and surprising view of the political struggles of our modern world one framed by sites of publication circulation translation and efforts at literary annexation

Nana Émile Zola, 2020-03-26 She was the golden beast an unconscious force the very scent of her could bring the world to ruin Nana daughter of a drunk and a laundress is the Helen of Troy of Paris A sexually magnetic high class prostitute and actress she becomes a celebrity rapidly conquering society ruining all men who fall under her spell especially Count Muffat Chamberlain to the Empress Nana herself meets a terrible fate consumed by her own dissipation and extravagance just as the disastrous war with Prussia is declared Nana is the ninth instalment in the twenty volume Rougon Macquart series The novel opens in 1867 the year of the World Fair when Paris thronged by a cosmopolitan lite was la Ville Lumi re the glittering setting and object of Zola s scathing denunciation of society s hypocrisy and moral corruption Nana comes to symbolize the Second Empire regime itself in all its excesses but in the final chapters the narrator seems to suggest that the coming disaster is not so much a result of the corruption of the Empire as of rampant female sexuality

The Plot Machine Kai Mikkonen, 2021-11-01 This book presents a new and exciting theory of the modern French novel by developing the notion of the narrative as a textual machine Many turn of the century French novels thematically identified their means of narration through the various machines that they depicted The narrative devices that were particularly important in this self reflection included the temporal order of the plot the question of a narrative s beginning and end the hierarchy of narrative voices and the techniques of the point of view The question of mechanization became central on all these fronts Has the novel become automated or machine like At the same time the machine metaphors in the novels of Alfred Jarry Emile Zola Jules Verne Villiers de l Isle Adam Raymond Roussel combined the question of the narrative form with new ways to think about man s relationship with technology and the cultural environment The early modernist texts drew upon contradictory notions of technological promise and threat while they also depicted new forms of identity and behavior related to or modeled after machines These texts highlighted cultural assumptions concerning technological innovations and critiqued mainly through parody and through various figures of man machine fusion the positivistic belief in progress Such writers looked for evidence of advanced forms of consciousness arising out of encounters with new technology such as telephones trains bicycles telegraphy phonographs and electricity This volume will be of interest to anyone working in the field of modern French literary and cultural history It will especially appeal to anyone intrigued with the origins of the modernist novel the history of narrative forms and the question of how the experience of new technology may be portrayed in literary texts
