Nature And Destiny Of Man Volume 1:

The Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold Niebuhr, 1996-01-01 Thought to be Niebuhr's most significant work as well as one of the few great 20th century works of theology by an American writer considers human nature from a Christian perspective

The Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold Niebuhr, 1945 Human Nature and the Discipline of Economics Patricia Donohue-White, 2002-01-01 Foundations of Economic Personalism is a series of three book length monographs each closely examining a significant dimension of the Center for Economic Personalism's unique synthesis of Christian personalism and free economic market theory In the aftermath of the momentous geo political and economic changes of the late 1980s a small group of Christian social ethicists began to converse with free market economists over the morality of market activity This interdisciplinary exchange eventually led to the founding of a new academic subdiscipline under the rubric of economic personalism These scholars attempt to integrate economic theory history and methodology with Christian personalism's stress upon human dignity humane social structures and social justice This second volume in the series surveys the anthropological foundations to the disciplines of economics and moral theology The first part of the book presents an overview of the German French and Polish branches of personalist thought Particular attention is given to theological anthropology especially as it is developed by such thinkers as Emmanuel Mounier Max Scheler Gabriel Marcel Karol Wojtyla and Emil Brunner Part two surveys models of human nature that have been espoused by various schools of free market thought including mainstream neoclassical economics In conclusion the authors demonstrate how an expanded understanding of human nature can augment the ability of economic science to model and predict human behavior

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics

Nature and Destiny of Man Reinhold Niebuhr, 2018-09-21 2018 Reprint of 1941 Edition Full facsimile of the original edition not reproduced with Optical Recognition software Volume One Human Nature A collection of theological lectures delivered by Niebuhr in 1939 The Nature and Destiny of Man tackles the Christian concept of human nature the powerlessness of man and Christianity's impact on human history Delivered just before the outbreak of World War II these lectures were so influential that Cold War containment policies and aspects of realpolitik can be traced back to them Especially recommended for those interested in ontology

Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized Compromised Goods Ruth Lessl Shively,1997 Nietzsche or Aristotle Moral subjectivism or moral objectivism Faced with these stark alternatives more and more American political theorists and philosophers find themselves in the middle asserting that moral truth is neither objective fact nor subjective fiction but a social construction However understandable such a compromise is precisely that a compromising position Ruth Lessl Shively contends A powerful critique of this middle position her book makes a compelling argument for moral realism as the only workable answer to the real dilemmas of political theory and moral life In Our Image Noreen L. Herzfeld,2002 In Our Image brilliantly illuminates who we are as humans by demonstrating the surprisingly deep parallels between our motivations to replicate ourselves through computer technology and our emerging understanding of ourselves as relational beings created in God's image This book is required reading for anyone Christian or non Christian intrigued by the possibility of artificial intelligence The Pastoral Nature of Theology R. John Elford,2000-03-01 Classifying pastoral care as an applied theology suggests that it stems from a separate and pure theology In this new volume R John Elford contends that pastoral concerns and actions are not products of theology but in fact are the catalysts that prompt and necessitate it Elford offers a detailed critical analysis of the relationship between theology and pastoral care and compares how different faith traditions understand the pastoral He traces how shifting historical circumstances and perceptions of pastoral need spurred changes in theological understanding and he asserts the need for these traditions to be in conversation with modern culture In closing The Pastoral Nature of Theology considers the role of morality in pastoral care and how contemporary issues often bring about profound theological problems A Journey Through Christian Theology William P. Anderson,2010-05-05 The history of Christian theology can be a daunting even forbidding field for the novice who sees neither the need for nor pertinence of rummaging around dusty old texts This people friendly volume a full scale reader in the history of Christian theology offers an easy non threatening occasionally humorous yet quite thorough entry into Christianity's central texts from the Apostolic Fathers to Mary Daly It is also enlivened by dozens of cartoons by Rich Diesslin Highly accessible introductions to five periods precede brief introductions to and texts from more than fifty key thinkers The texts highlight perennial themes and questions in Christian tradition especially the meaning and importance of Jesus challenges to the institutional church tensions of faith and reason spirituality and the Christian quest for social justice The new edition half again as large as the original adds significant work from the Cappadocian Fathers and the Christological controversialists the Franciscan tradition the Radical and English reforms and deeper coverage of twentieth century theologians With learning aids research paper suggestions and guide and glossary Publisher description Women and Pride Luping Huang,2018-09-30 Reinhold Niebuhr is largely regarded as the leading twentieth century theologian of sin However many feminist theologians criticize Niebuhr s view of pride as the primary sin arguing that it fits only with men s experience In this detailed study Dr Luping Huang engages with Niebuhr and his feminist critics to provide a response to the feminist critique of Niebuhr s theology of sin Dr Huang provides a thorough analysis and examination of both the Niebuhrian and feminist understandings of sin highlighting the strengths and limitations of both arguments While some aspects of the feminists opposition to Niebuhr s doctrine of sin are valid there are weaknesses and limitations within its own framework Through her research and interaction with women s testimonies Huang s argument bridges these two competing views of women and sin resulting in a more accurate understanding and application of the theology of sin particularly in reference to women

Covenants of Life K.L. Vaux,M. Stenberg,2013-03-14 The intense fervor of a Mississippi Methodist preacher the meticulous reasoning of an Oxford logician the dogged persistence of a head longshoreman the unflagging humor of a Rabelaisian satirist To have met Paul Ramsey at a lecture in a medical university a heady conference at Hastings on Hudson a congressional hearing deliberations at a church assembly or a bull session in some coffee shop was to be confronted with a gentleman of unforgettable energy insight and delight In many roles as a young instructor in religious studies at Princeton University a concerned moral theologian commenting on the ethics of the sit ins and nuclear issues an observer and dialogue partner with physicians at Georgetown and other medical centers a faithful editor and analyst of Jonathan Edwards ethical writings a trustee of the Hastings center a voluminous correspondent with others who would join to disciplined pursuit of values Paul Ramsey in all roles was indefatigable in zeal rigorous in demand and gracious in coadventuring to use one of his wonderful metaphors This volume captures a unique exchange between Paul Ramsey and his most prominent colleagues In one sense it remains a Festschrift in his honor characterized at times by a markedly informal tone

The Republic of Nature Mark Fiege,2012-03-20 In the dramatic narratives that comprise The Republic of Nature Mark Fiege reframes the canonical account of American history based on the simple but radical premise that nothing in the nation s past can be considered apart from the natural circumstances in which it occurred Revisiting historical icons so familiar that schoolchildren learn to take them for granted he makes surprising connections that enable readers to see old stories in a new light Among the historical moments revisited here a revolutionary nation arises from its environment and struggles to reconcile the diversity of its people with the claim that nature is the source of liberty Abraham Lincoln an unlettered citizen from the countryside steers the Union through a moment of extreme peril guided by his clear eyed vision of nature s capacity for improvement In Topeka Kansas transformations of land and life prompt a lawsuit that culminates in the momentous civil rights case of Brown v Board of Education By focusing on materials and processes intrinsic to all things and by highlighting the nature of the United States Fiege recovers the forgotten and overlooked ground on which so much history has unfolded In these pages the nation s birth and development pain and sorrow ideals and enduring promise come to life as never before making a once familiar past seem new The Republic of Nature points to a startlingly different version of history that calls on readers to reconnect with fundamental forces that shaped the American experience For more information visit the author s website <http://republicofnature.com>

Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala, 2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler 1904-1987 an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 12 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecotheology Joseph Sittler God's Patience and our Work Ben Fulford, 2024-02-28 In God's Patience and our Work Ben Fulford argues that Hans Frei's theology and ethics offers unheralded but valuable resources for thinking about the social and political engagement of Christian communities in pluralistic societies in light of hope in Jesus Christ He shows how Frei's project of recovering the conditions for and shape of a generous orthodoxy runs through his work offering broad flexible vision of Christian identity ethical responsibility and humanistic witness focused in the person and presence of Jesus Christ In dialogue with liberation theologies Fulford draws from Frei an account of divine patience and providence to frame hopeful pragmatic Christian participation in work for dignity justice and penultimate reconciliation rooted in new and deeper contextual reading of his work

Roots of Realism Benjamin Frankel, 2013-10-11 Political realism sees politics as a permanent struggle for power and security The essays in this volume examine the tradition of realist political analysis of international relations from the Sophists and Thucydides to the modern era

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

Just War on Terror? Brian Wicker,2016-04-22 Following the 9 11 attacks by Al Qa ida President Bush declared war on terror In the succeeding years Western governments have struggled to find the right way to respond to the new and deadly threat posed by terrorism With the election of President Obama the rhetoric has softened and policies have been adjusted but the underlying problems and challenges remain the same Meanwhile the war on terrorism in Afghanistan has been intensified Drawing on just war teaching as developed within both Christian and Muslim traditions this book examines whether and how liberal democracies can combat the new global terrorism both effectively and justly The authors including distinguished academics from both sides of the Atlantic Christian and Muslim theologians former senior civil servants and a General deploy a wide range of experience and expertise to address one of the most difficult and pressing ethical challenges to contemporary society
