Nauka I Religija:

Marxism and Religion in Eastern Europe R.T. De George, Robert H. Scanlan, 2012-12-06 Since the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 two of the most significant but at the same time least understood areas of that revolution's cultural impact have been philosophy and religion. The impact has of course been massive not only in the Soviet Union but after the second World War in Soviet dominated Eastern Europe as well. Yet the consequences of Communism for philosophy and religion throughout the Soviet orbit are far from having the simplicity suggested by the stereotypes of a single monolithic Marxism and a consistent crushing assault on the Church and on religious faith. Unquestionably Marxism is the ruling philosophy throughout Eastern Europe. In the Soviet Union Marxism Leninism or dialectical materialism is the official and the only tolerated philosophy and most of the other countries of Eastern Europe follow the Soviet lead in philosophy as in other fields. But in the latter countries Marxism was imposed only after World War II and its development has not always copied the Soviet model. Original thinkers in Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary have thought their own way through the writings of Marx and his followers and have arrived at Marxist positions which are considerably at variance with the Soviet interpretations and often with each other. Moreover in recent years the Soviet philosophers themselves have been unable to ignore the theoretical questions raised by the other East of Marxism in the West. Nauka i religija kroz vekove Miliša Stanić, 1952

Demythologizing Marxism F.J. Adelman, 2012-12-06 This second volume of the Boston College Studies in Philosophy commemorates the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Karl Marx. This dedication bespeaks the evolution permeating the entire world today not only in the sense of a development of ideas but more especially of the inner and sincere quest for peace intensifying in the hearts of all men. We Christians rejoice in the drive onward toward the fulfillment of peace on earth. We are sorry however that it is so late in Christian history and that it received its impulse more from the fear of nuclear armaments than from the development of Christian ideas. Nonetheless here in the midst of so much bewilderment we find an optimistic note in the realization that these ideas can now touch at long last offer hope for a peaceful future. Strange as it may seem there is currently a new interest in the philosophy of Marxism. This stems in part from the renewed study of the writings of the young Marx and a concentration on that aspect of his work which is more philosophical than politico-economic such as is more prominent in the later Das Kapital. But even more our interest in Marxism has occurred because of what has happened to the contemporary Marxists themselves. First of all after Stalin's time a certain new openness not yet perfect but nonetheless real has developed in Russia to the benefit of scholars. Puшкиn Today David M. Bethea, 1993 Since the nineteenth century the great Russian writer Alexander Pushkin has been a cultural myth a figure absolutely central to Russian culture even to Russianness itself. In this volume distinguished American Slavists address Pushkin's writings from a multiplicity of contemporary literary perspectives and investigate some of the most puzzling issues in the poet's life and work. Scientific Atheism in East Germany (1963-1990) Eva Guigo-Patzelt, 2024-12-02 This book offers an in depth archive based analysis of scientific atheism focused on the development of the field in the German Democratic Republic GDR Scientific atheism was established as a Soviet import in 1963 at Jena University with a presence in East German universities propaganda and politics for nearly 30 years The chapters explore the sociological work done by scientific atheists such as Olof Klohr how they defined religion and atheism and their role as actors of atheisation in various fields As well as reflecting on the specific religious and political context in East Germany the author makes comparison with other communist ruled countries Drawing on extensive and unique documentation this book will be of interest to scholars of atheism and secularism religion and politics religious history German history and East European studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license *Canadian-American Slavic Studies.
