American Indian Textiles Gregory Schaaf,2001 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 The Desert is No Lady Vera Norwood,Janice J. Monk,1997 Over the past century women artists and writers have expressed diverse creative responses to the landscape of the Southwest The Desert Is No Lady provides a cross cultural perspective on women by examining Anglo Hispanic and Native American women s artistic expressions and the effect of their art in defining the southwestern landscape The Desert Is No Lady has been made into a motion picture of the same title by Women Make movies New York NY A beautifully crafted book Although it varies in intensity the response of women to the environment is virtually always different from the male frontiersman s view of the land as inanimate boundless conquerable and controllable Polly Wells Kaufman in Women s Review of Books A powerful masterpiece Eve Gruntfest in The Professional Geographer Colonized Through Art Marinella Lentis,2017 Colonized through Art explores how the federal government used art education for American Indian children as an instrument for the colonization of consciousness hoping to instill the values and ideals of Western society while simultaneously maintaining a political social economic and racial hierarchy Focusing on the Albuquerque Indian School in New Mexico the Sherman Institute in Riverside California and the world s fairs and local community exhibitions Marinella Lentis examines how the U S government s solution to the Indian problem at the end of the nineteenth century emphasized education and assimilation

Educational theories at the time viewed art as the foundation of morality and as a way to promote virtues and personal improvement. These theories made the subject of art a natural tool for policy makers and educators to use in achieving their assimilationist goals of turning student savages into civilized men and women. Despite such educational regimes for students, however, indigenous ideas about art oftentimes emerged from below, particularly from well-known art teachers such as Arizona Swayney and Angel DeCora. Colonized through Art explores how American Indian schools taught children to abandon their cultural heritage and produce artificially native crafts that were exhibited at local and international fairs. The purchase of these crafts by the general public turned students' work into commodities and schools into factories. The Key to
