The Future: Warfare, military forces and technology ,1989      Japan's Options for the 1980s Radha Sinha,2010-10-18 Japan s economic success since the 1950s created a range of serious domestic and international problems which threaten the stability of the country Within Japan at the start of the 1980s there was a strong mood on the right for remilitarization to give the nation the super power status her economic performance justified Outside Japan there was increasing pressure from the West to make her conform to Western strategic interests Against the background of these crucial issues the book analyzes the economic political and military options open to Japan Focussing on the interconnecting themes of foreign harassment and domestic economic disorder the author points out many areas of similarity between Japan of the 1930s and Japan of the 1980s      USN Naval Operations in the 80's Michael Skinner,1986      All Hands ,1989

The Defence of the Realm in the 1980s Dan Smith,2021-01-26 This book first published in 1980 is a close analysis of Britain s defence policy in the latter years of the Cold War It examines the factors that limited the choices available to the governments of the day including technological advances costs changes in the balance of power strategic thinking in both West and East and the consequent implications for the development of forces and arms      Operational Warfare at Sea Milan Vego,2008-10-27 This new volume provides a comprehensive analysis of both the theory and practice of operational warfare at sea The book is unique in using diverse sources and examples to present a comprehensive topical description and analysis of the key components of operational warfare at sea today It opens with a survey of the emergence of operational warfare at sea since the end of the Napoleonic Wars going on describe and analyze the objectives of naval warfare at the operational level and methods of employment of naval forces for accomplishing these objectives The book explains the specifics of operational functions in a maritime theatre discusses the personality traits and professional education required for successful naval operational commanders and explores naval operational command and control in both peacetime and war closing with predictions for the future of operational warfare at sea This book serves as a primer of how to plan prepare and execute major naval operations and campaigns for naval commanders and their staffs but will also be of interest to advanced students of naval history strategic studies and military history in general Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1987

U.s. Military Power And Rapid Deployment Requirements In The 1980s Sherwood S Cordier,2019-06-04 This book assesses U S military needs in the coming decade focusing on the role of rapid deployment forces in protecting U S interests abroad Dr Cordier begins by discussing two general developments crucial to future military requirements first increasing U S dependence on the global sea lanes as links to key markets and second improved S

China's Maritime Ambitions and the PLA Navy Sandeep Dewan,2013-01-16 China s Maritime Power dates back thousands of years China has one of the oldest naval traditions in the world dating from at least the end of the Warring States period in 221 BC Nonetheless China has historically been a continental state with a large ground force and only a coastal navy with limited blue water capability The rise of modern day China raises considerable regional and security concerns besides economic and political competition towards finding a rightful place in power politics of the South Asian Region and hence needs a critical analysis There is a need to focus future strategies to deal with such challenges both in the medium and long term An effort to achieve the same has been undertaken in this book The book is sure to stimulate further discussions on China s navy and its ambitions Foreword by Srikanth Kondapalli Proceeding of the VI International Ship Design & Naval Engineering Congress \(CIDIN\) and XXVI Pan-American Congress of Naval Engineering, Maritime Transportation and Port Engineering \(COPINAVAL\) Vice Admiral Jorge Enrique Carreño Moreno,Adan Vega Saenz,Luis Carral Couce,Jymmy Saravia Arenas,2020-03-10 This book presents the proceedings of CIDIN and COPINAVAL The papers present the development of the navy maritime and riverine industry contributing to the scientific and technological progress and development in the sector In 2019 the congresses occurred in Cartagena Colombia a reference for science and technology innovation for Latin American naval industry

Modern African Conflicts Timothy J. Stapleton,2022-06-30 An essential resource for students or general readers interested in post colonial Africa this encyclopedia provides coverage of different regions countries wars battles factions leaders and foreign powers Armed conflict represents a substantial part of African history since around 1960 yet this history is either insufficiently taught or overshadowed by negative stereotypes about African tribal warfare This encyclopedia provides concise historical information on conflicts that occurred in post colonial Africa The entries cover all the regions of Africa North West Central East and Southern the Cold War and post Cold War periods a range of important leaders various types of conflicts from civil wars and insurgencies to conventional military engagements involvement of foreign powers and such themes as airpower women and war and genocide The Secret War Against Sweden Ola Tunander,2004-07-22 Following the stranding of a Soviet Whiskey class submarine in 1981 on the Swedish archipelago a series of massive submarine intrusions took place within Swedish waters However the evidence for these appears to have been manipulated or simply invented Classified documents and interviews point to covert Western rather than Soviet activity

Global Commons and the Law of the Sea Keyuan Zou,2018-08-13 Global Commons refers to resource domains or areas that lie outside of the political reach of any one State including sea areas beyond national jurisdiction and Antarctica The concept of global commons is a living concept and can accommodate over time other commons at the international level such as biodiversity and generic resources The outlook for the global marine commons is not encouraging fishery resources continue to deplete marine biodiversity continues to reduce and plastic wastes in the oceans continue to increase In international law there are legal regimes governing global marine commons the most important of which is the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea LOSC Effective as of 1994 LOSC governs the high seas international seabed and its resources marine environmental protection and fisheries Global Commons and the Law of the Sea offers intellectual discussions on global marine commons It contains six parts respectively addressing the principle of the common heritage of mankind CHM freedoms of high seas deep sea mining and international seabed area beyond national jurisdiction ABNJ governance management of geoengineering and generic resources and recent developments in the polar regions War Plans and Alliances in the Cold War Vojtech Mastny,Sven S. Holtsmark,Andreas Wenger,2013-04-15 This essential new volume reviews the threat perceptions military doctrines and war plans of both the NATO alliance and the Warsaw Pact during the Cold War as well as the position of the neutrals from the post Cold War perspective Based on previously unknown archival evidence from both East and West the twelve essays in the book focus on the potential European battlefield rather than the strategic competition between the superpowers They present conclusions about the nature of the Soviet threat that could previously only be speculated about and analyze the interaction between military matters and politics in the alliance management on both sides with implications for the present crisis of the Western alliance This new book will be of much interest for students of the Cold War strategic history and international relations history as well as all military colleges
