Navy Blue Eyes:

Naval Eyewitnesses James Goulty, 2022-11-04 Goulty tells the story from the perspective of the ordinary sailor or officer who was there The Northern Mariner Although many books have been written about naval actions during the Second World War histories and memoirs in particular few books have attempted to encompass the extraordinary variety of the experience of the war at sea That is why James Goulty's vivid survey is of such value Sailors in the Royal Navy and the Merchant Navy experienced a war fought on a massive scale on every ocean of the world in a diverse range of vessels from battleships aircraft carriers and submarines to merchant ships and fishing boats Their recollections are as varied as the ships they served in and they take the reader through the entire maritime war as it was perceived at the time by those who had direct personal knowledge of it Throughout the book the emphasis is on the experience of individuals their recruitment and training their expectations and the reality they encountered on active service in many different offensive and defensive roles including convoy duty and coastal defence amphibious operations hunting U boats and surface raiders mine sweeping and manning landing and rescue craft A particularly graphic section describes in the words of the sailors themselves what action against the enemy felt like and the impact of casualties seamen who were wounded or killed on board or were lost when their ships sank A fascinating inside view of the maritime warfare emerges which may be less heroic than the image created by some post war accounts but it gives readers today a much more realistic impression of the whole gamut of wartime life at sea
