Home Will Never Be the Same Again Carol R. Hughes,Bruce R. Fredenburg,2020-06-22 Adult children are often overlooked and forgotten when their parents divorce later in life but in these pages they will find comfort and understanding for the many feelings frustrations and challenges they face For more than two decades a silent revolution has been occurring and creating a seismic shift in the American family and families in other countries It has been unfolding without much comment and its effects are being felt across three to four generations more couples are divorcing later in life Called the gray divorce revolution the cultural phenomenon describes couples who divorce after the age of 50 Overlooked in the issues that affect couples divorcing later in in life are the adult children of divorcing parents Their voices open this book and they are the voices of men and women 18 to 50 years old Some of them are single some are married Some have children of their own All of them are in different stages of shock fear and sudden dramatic change In Home Will Never Be the Same A Guide for Adult Children of Gray Divorce Carol Hughes and Bruce Fredenburg share their deep understanding gained during the innumerable hours they have spent with these women and men in their clinical practices The result is a valuable resource for these too often forgotten adult children many of whom find that whenever they express their feelings and experiences the most important people in their lives frequently ignore and dismiss them As the divorce rate for older adults soars so too does the number of adult children who are experiencing parental divorce Yet these adult children frequently say that they are the only ones who are aware of what they are going through no one understands what they are experiencing and they feel painfully alone
