New Faces In New Places:

Nuevo South Perla M. Guerrero, 2017-11-22 Latinas/os and Asians are rewriting the meaning and history of race in the American South by complicating the black/white binary that has frequently defined the region since before the Civil War. Arriving in southern communities as migrants or refugees, Latinas/os and Asians have experienced both begrudging acceptance and prejudice as their presence confronts and troubles local understandings of race and difference. Understandings that have deep roots in each community's particular racial history as well as in national fears and anxieties about race. Nuevo South offers the first comparative study showing how Latinas/os and Asians are transforming race and place in the contemporary South. Integrating political, economic, and social analysis, Perla M. Guerrero examines the reception of Vietnamese, Cubans, and Mexicans in northwestern Arkansas communities that were almost completely white until the mid-1970s. She shows how reactions to these refugees and immigrants ranged from reluctant acceptance of Vietnamese as former US allies to rejection of Cubans as communists, criminals, and homosexuals, and Mexicans as illegal aliens who were perceived as invaders when they began to establish roots and became more visible in public spaces. Guerrero's research clarifies how social relations are constituted in the labor sphere, particularly the poultry industry, and reveals the legacies of regional history, especially anti-Black violence and racial cleansing. Nuevo South thus helps us to better understand what constitutes the so-called Nuevo South and how historical legacies shape the reception of new people in the region. Character's Book of Poetry...Discovery, Direction, & Purpose Kevin King Sr., 2013-05-28 All rights reserved. This book or parts thereof may not be reproduced without permission from the publisher. PRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Contemporary Immigration in America Kathleen R. Arnold, 2015-02-03 State and local immigration issues and policies for all 50 states are thoroughly examined in this unique, up-to-date and accessibly written encyclopedia. Immigration continues to be a timely and often controversial subject, particularly regarding legislation at the state level. While many books cover US immigration, both historical and contemporary, few, if any, reference works examine the role of contemporary immigration in individual states. This two-volume encyclopedia fills that gap. Chapters address legal, social, political, and cultural issues of immigrant groups on a state-by-state basis and explore immigration trends and issues faced by individual ethnic populations. The encyclopedia will enable students to research the impact, contributions, and issues of immigration for each state to make comparisons between states and regions of the United States and to understand state versus national policies. By combining the history of immigration policy with current information, the work shows readers that many of the issues making news today are the same as those the nation dealt with in past decades. Studying state and local dynamics provides a unique perspective on this history. Diasporic Distractions Mohamed M. Keshavjee, 2017 Giving Voice to Traditional Songs Jean Redpath, 2018-05-31 The singer tells her story from Scottish childhood to success on the Greenwich Village folk scene and beyond, and shares her passion for traditional music. Jean Redpath is best remembered for her impressive repertoire of ancient ballads. Robert Burns songs and contemporary folk music recorded and performed over a career spanning some fifty years In this book Mark Brownrigg captures Redpath's idiosyncratic and often humorous voice through his interviews with her during the last eighteen months of her life Here Redpath reflects on her humble beginnings her Scottish heritage her life's journey and her mission of preserving performing and teaching traditional song A native of Edinburgh Redpath was raised in a family of singers of traditional Scots songs She broadened her knowledge through work with the Edinburgh Folk Society and Scottish studies at Edinburgh University but prior to graduation she abandoned academia to follow her passion of singing Her independent spirit took her to the United States where she found commercial success amid the Greenwich Village folk music revival in New York in the 1960s and shared a house and concert stages with Bob Dylan and Ramblin Jack Elliott Soon a rave review in the New York Times launched her career and led to wide recognition as a true voice of traditional Scottish songs As a regular on Garrison Keillor's A Prairie Home Companion and a guest on Late Show with David Letterman Redpath endeared herself to millions with her soft melodies and amusing tales and her extraordinary career and extensive knowledge of traditional Scottish music history earned her prestigious university appointments a performance for Queen Elizabeth II and induction into the Scottish Traditional Music Hall of Fame This is her remarkable story
