

ROBERT MULLER

NEW GENESIS

Shaping a Global Spirituality

I dedicate this book to the innumerable good people of this planet who want to live in peace, friendship, freedom and justice, and to enjoy the miracle of life under the generous rays of our sun and the good guidance of the God of the universe.

It is dedicated to all peacemakers who try to heal the antiquated quarrels, divisions and insanity of those who refuse to recognize the oneness of our planetary home and of the human family.

It is dedicated to all my comrades from Alsace-Lorraine who died in the flower of their age during World War II while God granted me the privilege of survival.

It is dedicated to the United Nations, the first universal organization of this planet, from which I have learned so much.

It is dedicated to Dag Hammarskjöld and U Thant, my spiritual masters.

It is dedicated to all those who have given me peace, happiness, love and knowledge during my sojourn on earth.

May the kind divine providence help us start a new history and prepare the advent of a new age, a new world, a new philosophy and new human relationships, as we approach the bimillennium.

Let us all coalesce with all our strength, mind, heart and soul around a New Genesis, a true global, God-abiding political, moral and spiritual renaissance to make this planet at long last what it was always meant to be: the Planet of God.

The Siam Repository Samuel John Smith, 1871 Authoritarianism and the Evolution of West European Electoral Politics Erik R. Tillman, 2021 Authoritarianism and the Evolution of West European Electoral Politics provides a novel explanation of rising Euroscepticism and right wing populism in Western Europe The changing political and cultural environment of recent decades is generating an ongoing realignment of voters structured by authoritarianism which is a psychological disposition towards the maintenance of social cohesion and order at the expense of individual autonomy and diversity High authoritarians find the values and demographic changes of the past several decades a threat to social cohesion which has created an opportunity for PRR parties to gain their support by campaigning against these perceived threats to national community posed by immigration values change and European integration The result is a worldview evolution in which party conflict is shaped by the rival preferences of high and low authoritarians Drawing on national and cross national survey data as well as an original survey experiment this book demonstrates how the relationship between authoritarianism and 1 attitudes towards the EU and 2 voting behaviour has evolved since the 1990s In doing so this book advances these literatures by providing an explanation for why certain voters are shifting towards PRR parties as electoral politics realigns Roman Faith and Christian Faith Teresa Jean Morgan, 2015 This study investigates why faith pistis fides was so important to early Christians that the concept and praxis dominated the writings of the New Testament It argues that such a study must be interdisciplinary locating emerging Christianities in the social practices and mentalites of contemporary Judaism and the early Roman empire This can therefore equally be read as a study of the operation of pistis fides in the world of the early Roman principate taking one small but relatively well attested cult as a case study in how micro societies within that world could treat it distinctively Drawing on recent work in sociology and economics the book traces the varying shapes taken by pistis fides in Greek and Roman human and divine human relationships whom or what is represented as easy or difficult to trust or believe in where pistis fides is deferred and reified in practices such as oaths and proofs how pistis fides is related to fear doubt and scepticism and which foundations of pistis fides are treated as more or less secure The book then traces the evolution of representations of human and divine human pistis in the Septuagint before turning to pistis pisteuein in New Testament writings and their role in the development of early Christologies incorporating a new interpretation of pistis Christou and ecclesiologies It argues for the integration of the study of pistis pisteuein with that of New Testament ethics It explores the interiority of Graeco Roman and early Christian pistis fides Finally it discusses eschatological pistis and the shape of the divine human community in the eschatological kingdom

Sovereignty at the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 Leonard V. Smith,2018 We have known for many decades that the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 failed in the sense that it did not prevent the outbreak of World War II This book investigates not whether the Paris Peace Conference succeeded or failed but the historically specific international system it created It explores the rules under which that system operated and the kinds of states and empires that inhabited it Deepening the dialogue between history and international relations theory makes it possible to think about sovereignty at the Paris Peace Conference in new ways Sovereignty in 1919 was about not just determining of answers demarcating the international system but also the questions Sovereignty in 1919 was about remaking the world Most histories of the Paris Peace Conference stop with the signing of the Treaty of Versailles with Germany on 28 June 1919 Sovereignty at the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 considers all five treaties produced by the conference as well as the Treaty of Lausanne with Turkey in 1923 It is organized not chronologically or geographically but according to specific problems of sovereignty A peace based on justice produced a criminalized Great Power in Germany and a template problematically applied in the other treaties The conference sought to unmix lands and peoples in the defeated multinational empires by drawing boundaries and defining ethnicities The conference sought not so much to oppose revolution as to instrumentalize it in the new international system The League of Nations so often taken as the supreme symbol of the failure of the conference is better considered as a continuation of the laboratory of sovereignty established in Paris Lotus International, 1992
