Ohio University In Perspective The Annual Convocation Address Of President Charles J Ping 1975 1984:

Ohio University in Perspective Charles J. Ping, 1985 The Sage in the Cathedral of Books Yang Yang, 2016-05-02 The biography of Dr Hwa Wei Lee who was awarded the highly prestigious Melvil Dewey Medal by the American Library Association in 2015 will be welcomed by readers interested in knowing not only more about Lee's personal achievements and contributions in librarianship but also about the rapid changes in the library profession in general The biography written by Ms Yang Yang of China Central Television in Beijing was first published in Chinese in China in 2011 It was republished in Taiwan with added information in 2014 This English edition translated by Dr Ying Zhang of the University of California in Irvine was updated by Lee Throughout his childhood and youth Lee experienced tremendous hardship during the brutal Sino Japanese War and then the Chinese civil war described in the first three chapters After arriving in the United States as a graduate student from Taiwan in 1957 he struggled to realize the American dream by studying hard and working diligently in the field of librarianship for nearly half a century The biography explores Lee's career at major academic libraries beginning at the University of Pittsburgh to his retirement from Ohio University including his seven years of library directorship at the Asian Institute of Technology in Bangkok Thailand under the sponsorship of the U S Agency for International Development After his first retirement Lee was invited by OCLC to become a Visiting Distinguished Scholar From there he was appointed Chief of the Asian Division at the Library of Congress and retired for the second time in 2008 The biography also highlights Lee's contributions in international librarianship especially in the promotion of library cooperation between the United States and China Institutions of Higher Education Linda Sparks, 1990-01-24 This bibliography brings together in one comprehensive volume citations of books dissertations theses and ERIC microfiche relating to the history of specific institutions of higher education worldwide All types of postsecondary institutions two years colleges liberal arts colleges seminaries specialized institutions and universities are included Entries include the following elements when available author editor title place of publication publisher publication date and number of pages Citations from 85 countries are included Entries are by country dependency and territory The United States has been further divided by state Names of institutions are in English References are in the language in which they were written The majority of the citations should be available in a library somewhere in the United States Obscure sources that may be difficult to obtain have been included because they are often the only citation All editions of a title as well as older works are included because of their potential value to a researcher The book should be a part of all college university and large public library collections College of Education faculty members specializing in higher or comparative education will find much of value here Ohio University in Perspective II Charles J. Ping, 1994 This volume is a companion to Ohio University in Perspective which brought together the annual convocation addresses of President Ping from the years 1975 through 1984 Like the earlier volume Ohio University in Perspective II provides an important window onto the world of Ohio University during the president's second decade of service There is no convocation address for 1987 because President Ping was very deeply involved in the work of the Colloquium on the Third Century The appendix brings together two documents from the period 1985-1994 plus the president's inaugural address The document entitled Toward the Third Century: Issues and Choices for Ohio University grew out of a colloquium convened by the president to provide a new educational plan for the University The Board of Trustees adopted this report in January 1988 as Educational Plan II to supplement the previous plan adopted in 1977 A second colloquium dealing with general education produced the report entitled The Continuing Reform of General Education to provoke campus discussion on ways to enhance the University's general education program Although not adopted as a set of changes to general education the report set an agenda for continuing discussion and debate on strategies to improve general education and to integrate its goals more fully into campus life The annual convocation addresses offer a vision of what Ohio University could become and over the nine years they encompass that vision increasingly became shared by the academic community This volume is presented by the Trustees of Ohio University and the Ohio University Foundation as their gift to Charles J. Ping for his nineteen years of leadership to the University Foreword by David Stewart Provost Ohio University, 1804-2004 Betty Holloway, 2003 Lively narrative depicting the historical academic and cultural events that shaped one of Ohio's premier universities Internationalizing U.S. Universities, 1991 Planning for Higher Education, 1988 American Book Publishing Record, 1987 Books in Print, 1991 A Conversation about Ohio University and the Presidency, 1975-1994 Charles J. Ping, 2014-11-01 When Charles Ping first arrived at Ohio University in 1975 the university was experiencing a decline in student enrollment and confronting serious financial challenges But rather than focusing on its problems Ping instead concentrated on Ohio University's potential During the nineteen years that Ping served as president he guided Ohio University in scholarship research and service while substantially increasing the size of the campus through the acquisition of The Ridges What attracted me was essentially the richness of the campus in people and programs said Ping A Conversation about Ohio University and the Presidency 1975-1994 is an edited version of the transcript of videotaped interviews recorded in May and June 2011 It is a conversation between two old friends said Ping of the series of interviews conducted by Sam Crowl Shakespearean scholar and now trustee professor emeritus
