Pastoral Life. Part I. The Clergyman at Home and in the Pulpit Edward A. Monroe, 1862      Sohkido Sky, 2012-03-27
SohKiDo is a Japanese hybrid word created by Dr Sky that essentially means the way of transpersonal creativity. SohKiDo reveals writing as a means to express and heal, to grow and probe the depths of spiritual mysteries. It is a multi-faceted book offering insights into energy, creativity and spirituality. A theoretical framework and practical tool is introduced to identify whether the writing is Personal, Transpersonal or Universal. This Prism of Consciousness tool enhances writers' ability to increase their awareness of the sources and the final product of their inspiration and allows transpersonal to be identified and manifest in the written word.

"The Pathways of Life - Uncensored" Sarah L. Breeden, 2011-01-29 Finally the Author gives us The Pathways of Life Uncensored, a page-turner. It talks about the paths we take in life and the repercussions that follow, some good, some bad. She says paths are something we as human beings have to take in life, some more interesting than others, but in living life they must be walked upon.

Life, Part 2: Information and Heredity William K. Purves, David Sadava, Gordon H. Orians, H. Craig Heller, 2004-08-24      Pathways of Life Elbert Wilson, 2020-10-19 Remember when farm families did their own butchering, mothers stayed home, folks churned their own butter, canned vegetables and meat, shucked corn, thrashed wheat, used a washboard, walked to church and school and had corn-cob fights. When girls or at least my sisters curled their hair with curling irons heated in the chimney of a kerosene lamp. When kids learned to work on the farm, both at home and for the neighbors and considered it a privilege just to be allowed to participate. When at school the two big challenging recess games for boys were mumble peg and marbles. When kids who had brothers in the service during World War II shared the worry and agony with their parents to learn of some neighbor families whose son never came home. When parents hung little flags in their doors or windows that contained a star for each son in the service, like the two stars on our flag for my brothers Alvin and Howard. When we shared in rationing and we painstakingly saved the foil from cigarette packages and turned it in for the war effort. When grandma came to visit and brightened up life by making room in her suitcase for chewing gum for the kids and chewing tobacco for herself. When grandma taught me to catch a chicken and wring its head off all for the promise of her homemade chicken and noodles. When we visualized the scenes when glued to the radio listening to Tom Mix, Gene Autry, Jack Armstrong, Inner Sanctum and Lucky Strike Hit Parade. We thought we had almost everything. Looking back we had a pretty good quality of life. At times I find myself wishing for the return to the more
