Lincoln, Inc. Jackie Hogan, 2011-10-16 From Lincoln themed cocktails and waffle parlors to high tech museums and steamy romance novels the image of Abraham Lincoln so permeates the national imagination that we now find him in the unlikeliest of places In Lincoln Inc Jackie Hogan examines the uses and abuses of the sixteenth president in the United States today The book takes readers on a journey through the little white lies of Lincoln tourism and offers a front row seat as the martyr president is invoked in heated political debates over such issues as homosexuality abortion and the war on terror Readers enter classrooms that use an idealized Honest Abe to Lincolnize American schoolchildren And readers step into the alternate universe of Lincoln fiction that transforms the Rail Splitter by turns into a hapless time traveler a sentimental cyborg an axe wielding zombie slayer or a frontier heart throb But Lincoln Inc is more than a tour through the thriving Lincoln industry today Whether in staid biographies blockbuster films school pageants or sleeping pill advertisements Hogan shows how the use of the Lincoln image reveals the nation's shared fears and fascinations The book analyzes the ways we employ Lincoln today in our political ideological personal and national struggles the ways we simultaneously deify and commercially exploit him the ways he is packaged and sold in the marketplace of American ideas In learning about Lincoln Inc we learn about ourselves about who we think we are and who we wish we could be The Measure of Ya' Blackness ,

American Men of Science, 1965 The Modern Woodman, 1924 Beyond Free College Eileen L. Strempel, Stephen J. Handel, 2021-01-15 Beyond Free College outlines an audacious national agenda consistent with but far more comprehensive than the current free college movement that builds on the best of US higher education's populist history such as the G I Bill and the community college transfer function The authors align a wide constellation of higher education trends online learning prior learning assessment competency based learning high school college credit with a rapidly shifting student transfer environment that privileges college credit as the pivotal educational catalyst to boost access and completion The book's agenda seeks greater productive investment in postsecondary education by privileging a single metric lower cost per degree granted as the animating driver of a transfer pathway that will fulfill the potential of its historical progressive innovators Beyond Free College's goal is as simple as it is urgent To galvanize higher education advocates in an effort to reorganize reorient and reignite the transfer function to serve the needs of a neotraditional student population that now constitutes the majority of college goers in America and in ways that advance completion not just access to higher education

A Psychology of Liberation and Peace Chalmer E. F. Thompson, 2019-03-27 This book addresses the need to radically transform societies plagued by racism It places prominence on persistent racialized violence in the lives of Black Americans as influential in how Black people in the U S and abroad perceive themselves as Black in juxtaposition to their perceptions of White people and other People of Color An absence of understanding of the often masked role of violence in the lives of Black people increases the likelihood of reproducing it The author offers a reformulation of racial identity theory to examine the construction of Manichaeism in people and societies and how meaningful engagement that confronts the violence is vital to psychological development though this engagement also is not without dire risks

Illinois Issues, 1976 The American and English Encyclopædia of Law David Shephard Garland, Lucius Polk McGehee, James Cockcroft, 1906 A History of America in Ten Strikes Erik Loomis, 2018-10-02 Recommended by The Nation the New Republic Current Affairs Bustle In These Times An entertaining tough minded and strenuously argued The Nation account of ten moments when workers fought to change the balance of power in America A brilliantly recounted American history through the prism of major labor struggles with critically important lessons for those who seek a better future for working people and the world Noam Chomsky Powerful and accessible A History of America in Ten Strikes challenges all of our contemporary assumptions

around labor unions and American workers In this brilliant book labor historian Erik Loomis recounts ten critical workers strikes in American labor history that everyone needs to know about and then provides an annotated list of the 150 most important moments in American labor history in the appendix From the Lowell Mill Girls strike in the 1830s to Justice for Janitors in 1990 these labor uprisings do not just reflect the times in which they occurred but speak directly to the present moment For example we often think that Lincoln ended slavery by proclaiming the slaves emancipated but Loomis shows that they freed themselves during the Civil War by simply withdrawing their labor He shows how the hopes and aspirations of a generation were made into demands at a GM plant in Lordstown in 1972 And he takes us to the forests of the Pacific Northwest in the early nineteenth century where the radical organizers known as the Wobblies made their biggest inroads against the power of bosses But there were also moments when the movement was crushed by corporations and the government Loomis helps us understand the present perilous condition of American workers and draws lessons from both the victories and defeats of the past In crystalline narratives labor historian Erik Loomis lifts the curtain on workers struggles giving us a fresh perspective on American history from the boots up Strikes include Lowell Mill Girls Strike Massachusetts 1830 40 Slaves on Strike The Confederacy 1861 65 The Eight Hour Day Strikes Chicago 1886 The Anthracite Strike Pennsylvania 1902 The Bread and Roses Strike Massachusetts 1912 The Flint Sit Down Strike Michigan 1937 The Oakland General Strike California 1946 Lordstown Ohio 1972 Air Traffic Controllers 1981 Justice for Janitors Los Angeles 1990
